Edge and Life Teen meet on a weekly basis, from September through the first week of May.

What happens during an Edge or Life Night?

Our youth ministry is a fun, Eucharist-centered approach to catechesis. Every youth night will include:

- ◇ Dinner: Jesus taught us if you feed them, they will come...we will share a meal every week!
- ◇ Ice Breakers: Games, skits, and contests...we'll be sure to set the mood for a fun-filled evening.
- ◇ The Lesson: No text books here! Each night we'll have a different guest speaker, video, or skit to teach about the night's topic. Our semester planning follows the USCCB's "National Doctrinal Curriculum Framework for High School Catechesis."
- ◇ Break-Out Session: Small group time, where teens can meet with their peers and core members and discuss the night's topic, ask questions, share ideas, and sometimes work on an activity or project, is always a favorite part of youth night!
- ◇ Prayer Experiences: In addition to traditional prayers, we will also have opportunities for guided meditations, Eucharistic Adoration, saying the Rosary, and other various forms of prayer.

Youth Ministry is made possible through donations.

There is NO CHARGE to participate in Edge or Life Teen! However, a gift of time, talent, or treasure in any amount is always appreciated.

Volunteer Time: From joining or supporting our Core Team, to helping prepare or donating a meal and praying for our teens, there's an opportunity for anyone who'd like to help out!

Contact Laura for more information regarding joining the...

- Core Team
- Hearts Open Wide (Service Squad)
- Prayer Warriors
- Martha Ministry (Cleaning & Set-Up)

Other donations: A monetary gift of any amount is always helpful! Donations can be made through the Take Stock in Youth Program, and may be tax-deductible. Please make payable to St. Stephen the Martyr. Donations will help to cover the cost of:

- Meals at Youth Night
- Curriculum and Materials
- Speaker Fees
- Sponsor Youth Events
