Pastor's Message

Then Jesus said to the crowd, "Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions."

In my 29 years as a priest, I have never seen a moving van in a funeral procession. We all know the wise saying, "You can't take it with you." No matter how much we have accumulated in our lifetime, we have to leave it all behind when we die. This is the message that Jesus shares with us this weekend.

There is a person in the crowd who calls out to Jesus and asks Him to "tell my brother to share the inheritance with me." Jesus responds by telling a story about greed. As it does in many instances today, the death of a loved one and the division of that person's property led to an argument and a break in the deceased person's family. The man in the parable that Jesus tells is already blessed with great abundance. He plans to relax and enjoy what he has accumulated in his life, but before he can enjoy his wealth, he is told he will die. Clearly his money and his possessions will offer him no comfort in death.

The problem in the story doesn't revolve around the possessions we have accumulated but around the desire to hoard the possessions, making wealth one's highest priority. Jesus reminds His listeners that it is wise to "store up" the riches that come from knowing and trusting God, not the riches that are offered by the world. For in the end, the only thing that we will bring with us before God is an account of our lives on earth and how we used our lives, our talents, our gifts, and our resources to serve God and His people.

We can't take it with us, so maybe it is wise to use our money and our possessions to make the world a better place. What are you willing to sacrifice and to share, so that God's work of communicating His message of love, peace, and reconciliation to the world may be accomplished through us?

"We make a living by what we get, but we make a life by what we give." – Winston Churchill

God bless you!
Fr. Dave

A number of people asked for the quote that Fr. Dave shared at Mass last weekend. His homily was about perseverance in prayer and confidence in God's providence. Here is the quote:

*"God is bigger than time, dates, and appointments.
He wants you to move through this day with a quiet heart, an inward assurance that He is in control, a peaceful certainty that your life is in His hands, a deep trust in His plan and purposes, and a thankful disposition, toward all that He allows.
He wants you to put your faith in Him, not in a timetable.
He wants you to wait on Him and wait for Him.
In His perfect way He will put everything together, see to every detail...
arrange every circumstance... and order every step to bring to pass what He has for you."

"Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions." Luke 12:15

The Gospel message today is contrary to our modern culture where advertising continually tries to convince us that our value lies in the things we possess. Jesus showed us that our true value lies in the way we live our lives. He challenges us to not hoard material possessions, but rather to live a grateful and generous lifestyle and become more "other-centered" and less "self-centered."

Special Collection next weekend, August 9-10

The St. John Paul II Newman Center near the UNO campus is a parish like ours, except its parishioners happen to be college students. Many of these students are venturing out on their own for the first time, away from the watchful eye of their parents, parish priests and teachers. Because of their vulnerability to the demands and deceptions of the secular world, there is an urgent need to keep students rooted in their faith.

Catholic students need a place to call their own – a place for faith formation, prayer, friendship with Jesus, recreation and entertainment. The JP II Newman Center is changing the lives of college students. That's why parishes across the archdiocese are holding a special collection next weekend.

Your financial support will provide the opportunity for students with common values to continue their faith journey through their college years and will encourage students to be leaders in their future parishes and communities. Please prayerfully consider giving to next week's JP II Newman Center special collection.

Faith, Hope and Love . . . Are these present in your marriage?

Have you given up hope that they can be?

Retrouvaille is an international Christian-based ministry that offers a three-stage program to help couples improve their marriages. First, a weekend program is attended, followed by post-weekend meetings. Finally, an on-going monthly small group of couples gather for support and growth. If improving your marriage is important to you, reach out today. For more information about a Retrouvaille Weekend program.
