Gospel Meditation

This Sunday's Gospel contrasts two different religious attitudes. First, the self-righteous Pharisee. Here is a man who seems to impeccably follow the law. In some terms, he is the model citizen! Honest, fiscally generous, and faithful to his marriage vows. But something else lurks in his heart: pride. "O God, I thank you that I am not like the rest of humanity ... or even like this tax collector." For the Pharisee, no fault can be admitted. The only way to stay on top is to preserve one's image — even to God, it seems! — and point out the flaws of others from the pedestal.

In the back of the temple, hidden and bowed down, is the tax collector. "O God, by merciful to me a sinner." This man's prayer is one of supplication and petition. He isn't afraid to express his sinfulness and misery. This, Jesus says, is the one who "went home justified." How many times have we heard the mission of Jesus to seek and save the lost? Jesus is the one who dines with sinners and invites every heart to repentance. But how can we return to him if we don't know we've left? How can we receive God's grace when we're adamant we don't need it?

We all have within us both the Pharisee and the tax collector. We want to be sure of ourselves and to be admired in the eyes of others. Yet we also know that we are not always what we wish to present to others. We can be preoccupied with our self-image and feel anxious about our flaws being exposed. Because we do have flaws, after all. We are the sinner in need of mercy. This Sunday, will we humble ourselves enough to ask for it?

May God Bless You!

"But the tax collector stood off at a distance and would not even raise his eyes to heaven but beat his breast and prayed, 'O God, be merciful to me a sinner.' I tell you, the latter went home justified, not the former; for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted." - Lk 18:13-14

2020 Stewardship of Treasure Appeal

Thank you for your faithful stewardship of St. Stephen the Martyr. It's that time of year again where we ask our parishioners to contemplate their financial stewardship and reflect on their commitment for the coming year. Please be on the lookout for a letter and offertory commitment card in the mail. Your offertory contribution enables us to continue the important work God calls us to do. Please return it to the secure offertory collection box in the gathering space, the offertory basket or the parish office. For assistance, contact Nicole at 402-861-4540 or n.neesen@stephen.org.

There are 16 families that are invited to this Mass to receive their cross with the name of their loved one. These crosses have hung in the Worship Space this past year so that parishioners are reminded to pray for these parishioners. Friday, is All Saints Day, and Saturday, is the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed (All Soul's Day).

Holy Hour – First Monday of the Month

Come for an hour of Eucharistic Adoration on Monday, November 4 at 7 p.m. in the Church. The hour will include the Rosary meditating on the joyful mysteries for Vocations.

National Vocations Awareness Week—November 3-9

St. Stephen the Martyr Vocations Ministry invites you to join
HOLY HOUR OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS
NOVEMBER 7, 2019 ~ THURSDAY
8:00 - 9:00 p.m.
DAILY MASS CHAPEL

CALLED BY NAME CARDS
Will be in the pews on Nov 2-3

As a Catholic community, we are called to be vigilant in our participatory role in prayerfully discerning our vocation and that of other individuals who might need affirmation in his/her own discernment process. All these are very important elements that gives vibrancy to the life of the church. Please write down the name of a person whom you strongly feel exhibits the qualities of a person who is being called to the priesthood, diaconate, or religious life.

Reservation Chapel Chair Project

We are excited to announce an improvement to the Reservation (Adoration) Chapel and Confessionals. In an effort to create a warm, welcoming, comfortable environment, all chairs will be replaced with (existing) restored ones of the same style. Chair restoration includes stripping, sanding, staining, and reupholstering (new foam and fabric). The existing kneelers will also be stripped, sanded and stained to match. This work is being completed by a group of volunteers. In order to minimize any inconvenience, one kneeler will be restored at a time.

We appreciate your patience as we work through this process over the next few weeks. Questions? Please contact Trinette Shamburg at mandtshamburg@cox.net.

Divine Liturgy Celebration

Did you know there are 24 different Catholic Churches, all in full communion with the pope, and that the Roman Catholic Church is just one of them?

The Ruthenian Catholic community in Omaha will be celebrating Mass, called the Divine Liturgy, with their bishop on November 17th at 11:00 a.m. This liturgy looks very different from the Roman Catholic Mass that you are used to, but is still a valid Catholic Mass - the bread and wine are transformed into the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ. Any Catholic can attend and receive Communion and it will count as your Sunday Mass Obligation.

Liturgy will be at St. Gerald's Lakeview Chapel, 7857 Lakeview St., Ralston, NE.
Join us and learn a little more about our Eastern Catholic brothers and sisters!

Vocations Corner

Today, Holy Scripture teaches us that in Christ's mercy we find peace. Those who serve God willingly find peace as they are heard in prayer. Let us join the Sisters of Mercy in their prayer for vocations. "Gracious and Merciful God, we pray that those you are calling to a religious vocation may respond with eager spirits and willing hands. May our families nurture the call of God in our children. May our parishes support the call through vibrant celebrations of our faith. May our Church leadership recognize that it is your Holy Spirit who calls and shapes each vocation. May our Church and the world be blessed with an abundance of women and men who consecrate their lives to that service, so that all people may come to know the deep joy of your abundant love. We pray through Jesus Christ, risen from the dead and always shepherding your Church, and in your Holy Spirit, who blesses us with courage, now and forever. Amen."

Religious Education News

October is Respect Life Month. From the time we are knit together in our mothers' wombs until we take our final breaths, each moment of our lives is a gift from God. While every season of life brings its own challenges and trials, each season also gives us opportunities to grow in relationship with Him. As new attacks on human life continue to emerge, we might be tempted to despair, but Christ instead offers us unending hope. Let us fast and prayer this month for a greater respect for life.

Time, Talent, Treasure – Volunteer Feature

We are blessed with many who give their time, talent and treasure to our operations and ministries. Jennifer Jones and husband Jaime of 19 years have been parishioners since 2004 and currently gives in many capacities including serving as vice president of the School Advisory Board. Jen and Jaime have three sons: Carson (8th grade), Caden (4th grade) and Cam (1st grade) all who attend St. Stephen the Martyr.

How did you get started volunteering at St. Stephen the Martyr?

I started volunteering in our boys' classrooms by helping in the classroom with reading groups, class parties, and eventually became a Classroom Coordinator. I've also helped in the library and with the book fairs; box tops coordinator, and signing up to help at a variety of events such as Martyr Marathon and Spikefest. I've been an executive team member for Home and School and currently sit on the Nominations Committee. I'm also in my third year as a member of the School Advisory Board and serving as Vice President this year. Our family also serves as Greeters at Mass and our son Carson is now a Master Server.

What do you enjoy most about volunteering?

I truly enjoy just being a part of the SSM community! We have an incredibly supportive community. It's important for us to be involved and show our support to the SSM staff and other volunteers. I also like knowing what happens in the classroom so that we can reiterate those things at home with our boys. Plus, it's a lot of fun to just be around the students and staff and getting to know them better.

What does St. Stephen the Martyr mean to you?

SSM is a very much like home to us. Jaime and I did not grow up in Omaha and we have felt very welcomed and "at home" here at St. Stephens. Our boys are growing up within this SSM community and we are very thankful for that. It truly does take a village to raise your children and we very grateful that SSM is a significant part of our village. The friendships we have made through the SSM community will be lifelong friendships.

Do you have any advice to other parishioners looking to volunteer?

Volunteering your time, talent and treasure is very rewarding. Even if it's only a couple of hours every other month, anything helps. There are many opportunities to help out whether it be in the library, classroom, at mass or at a special event. You simply just have to ask what can be done! Every helping hand is welcome and appreciated! When I was considering applying for a position on the School Advisory Board, a good friend sent me this quote from Mark Twain and I still have it hanging in my office. "Twenty years from now you will be more disappointed by the things that you didn't do than by the ones you did do. So throw off the bowlines. Sail away from the safe harbor. Catch the trade winds in your sails. Explore. Dream. Discover."

Sunday Offering

"...for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted." Luke 18:14

Pride and ego is the root cause of most of our sins. Thinking your time is so valuable, your talent is better than anyone else and your money gives you status is another way of making those things "gods" before God. Remember all those gifts were God-given. Instead we should be humbled by God's abundant generosity and our hearts should overflow with gratitude.
