Pastor's Message

"My brothers and sisters, we believe that all the ties of friendship and affection which knit us as one throughout our lives do not unravel with death. Confident that God always remembers the good we have done and forgives our sins, let us pray..."

This invitation to prayer is found in the "Vigil for the Deceased," which is the liturgy that is prayed on the evening before the funeral liturgy is celebrated. It proclaims our faith that death does not separate us from those who are no longer sharing this earthly journey with us. It gives us great consolation to know that all those who have gone before us in death are still a part of our community of faith and that they continue to guide and support us with their love and prayers. Personally, this belief that we are still connected to our loved ones, even though we are separated by death, gives me great comfort and hope as I continue to remember family members, friends, and former parishioners who have gone before us in death.

This belief that we are bound to the Communion of Saints is what we celebrate every time we gather together for the Eucharist. We believe that the human community, gathered with the Communion of Saints, is the Body of Christ. Those who believe in the power of the cross and resurrection are bound together by that faith and not even death will separate us.

In a very special way, we set aside the month of November to pray for and remember those who have died and who are preparing a place in eternity for us. It is a time for us to give thanks for the love and friendship that they shared with us as we walked this journey of life together. It is also a time for us to look to the example of the Saints of our tradition and ask them to strengthen us with their prayers.

"Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen."

God bless you!
Fr. Dave

Divine Liturgy Celebration

Did you know there are 24 different Catholic Churches, all in full communion with the pope, and that the Roman Catholic Church is just one of them? The Ruthenian Catholic community in Omaha will be celebrating Mass, called the Divine Liturgy, with their bishop on November 17th at 11:00 a.m. This liturgy looks very different from the Roman Catholic Mass that you are used to, but is still a valid Catholic Mass - the bread and wine are transformed into the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ. Any Catholic can attend and receive Communion and it will count as your Sunday Mass Obligation. Liturgy will be at St. Gerald's Lakeview Chapel, 7857 Lakeview St., Ralston, NE. Go and learn a little more about our Eastern Catholic brothers and sisters!

Regnum Christi Retreat—Nov. 2

Regnum Christi is hosting a retreat the first Saturday of each month which includes participation in the 8 a.m. Mass followed by adoration and a talk. The retreat will conclude by 10 a.m. and is open to all men and women from the parish. Please join us! This month's theme: Why Confession? Questions? Contact: Cathy Ashton

Vocations Corner

St. Paul's beautiful words today launch us perfectly into a prayer for our celebration of National Vocations Awareness Week. May we faithfully pray for young, middle-aged and old, that God may make them worthy of his calling, powerfully bringing into fulfillment every good purpose and every effort of faith, that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in all and all in him, in accord with the grace of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen! Let us not underestimate the influence we have on those around us. Please visit www.vocationawarenessweek.com for resources to inform, inspire and invite yourself and others to their holy calling. Let us never underestimate God's imperishable spirit in each of us.
