Gospel Meditation— Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

©LPI

When I was a kid, I remember the priest at Mass announcing, "The Lamb of God!" Frankly, it struck me as nonsense. I thought: Why in the world does God have a lamb? And where is this lamb?

John the Baptist sees Jesus coming toward him and announces, "Behold the lamb of God." His Jewish listeners knew what he meant. God's lamb is the thing that is sacrificed at the Jewish Passover and consumed by the participants. For almost a thousand years, lambs were ritually slaughtered and eaten in Jerusalem at Passover. The lamb meant sacrifice, freedom from sin, and communion with God. The Baptist is saying in effect, "This man will be ritually sacrificed and consumed so that God's people may be free from sin and united to God."

It's crucial to relate to Jesus as a friend, brother, teacher, and Lord of our lives. But we should also learn to interact with Him as our lamb of God. That means we intentionally place on him our sins, sadnesses, and hopes, and offer him to God. Then we consume him to make us free. This is what we do at every Mass. That's why he is the Lamb of God.

— Father John Muir

The image of the Magi kneeling before the infant Jesus and opening their treasure chests for Him is an image that we should all try to follow each day. In gratitude for all that we have been given, we are called to generously share all of our gifts, not just the ones we pick and choose. God wants us to be generous with everything, but especially that one thing that means the most to you.

Christ at Work in our Parish Family

Thank you from the Cole Family

Thank you so much to our St Stephen the Martyr Church Family for the overwhelming love and support we felt and observed at the Rosary and Pasta Supper and Raffle Fundraiser that was held for our family this past month. We cannot put into words how much all the love, support and prayers have meant to our family during this journey. Thank you to the church for allowing us to hold it at the church and for all the organizers of this event! - Love, Eli Cole and Family

Thank you for your generosity toward Ukrainian Refugees this Christmas

The St. Stephen the Martyr Knights of Columbus participated in a global effort to support Ukrainian Refugee families living in Poland this Christmas. The goal was to provide each family with a Christmas dinner. St. Stephen the Martyr parishioners were more than generous, raising $1,400. Thank you for keeping all refugees in your prayers and thank you for your generosity.

Thank you for bringing the Eucharist to the Homebound and the Sick

Dear Friends, Eucharistic minister, and members of the St. Stephen the Martyr Prayer Shawl Ministry,

When I was at Brookestone Assisted Living, I very much appreciated the opportunity to receive the Eucharistic Minister's visit. It was a privilege to receive the Body of Christ in Eucharistic form. Then one day she brought with her a lovely prayer shawl. That is a very meaningful gift and as I read the message again today, I wonder what part you folks had in my ability to go home this week. We never know what part prayers and well wishes have in healing, but we don't need to know.

I just wanted you to know how I appreciated the visits and the prayers. I moved to Crown Pointe for a month and as I said it is time to leave. My hands and body are moving quite well now so I'll be home for Christmas. May the peace of Christ find space in our hearts and homes and our troubled world.

Thanks again!

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Life Explained:

Question:

What is unique or different about the way Catholics read and are exposed to the Bible?

Answer:

Catholics are exposed to Scripture primarily through the Sunday readings from a book known as the Lectionary. The Lectionary is a book of selected passages from the Bible set in the context of a liturgical season, such as Advent, Lent, or ordinary time. There are four readings assigned to any Sunday: the first reading (usually from the Old Testament), the responsorial psalm, the second reading (usually from a New Testament letter), and the Gospel reading.

These readings together give them a new context. The selected readings relate to one another in a unique manner that is not present in the Bible text itself. In close proximity to each other, these readings now have the opportunity to converse with each other in a way that would have not been possible before. A homilist pays attention to all four readings, preparing a reflection that speaks of this conversation among the readings, enabling us to zero in on what this unique combination of God's word has to say to us this particular Sunday.

Next time you attend Sunday liturgy, try reading the Scripture ahead of time and see how this new relationship among the readings addresses and challenges you to be a better Christian here and now. ©LPi
