Second Collection on Jan. 7th & 8th

There will be a second collection for the Archdiocese of Omaha Seminarians this weekend. Funding for the Seminary collection provides a substantial percentage of the cost of educating seminarians, which include tuition, room, board, books, travel costs and health insurance.

St. Stephen the Martyr currently has two men in the seminary: Logan Hepp and Michael Figura. Additionally, this year we are hosting Thomas Matya for his Pastoral Internship year.

To support these men and all Archdiocese Seminarians, place your contribution in the offertory basket during the second collection, give online at stephen.org/give or scan this QR code.

THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. - Mt 2:10-11a

Pastor's Message—From Father Dave

"And behold, the star that they had seen at its rising preceded them, until it came and stopped over the place where the child was. They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother."

The Gospel on this Feast of the Epiphany is a dramatic story of a journey begun in faith. Three astrologers travel from a foreign land, led by a star. They had no idea what they would find or where they would find it. All they knew was that they were searching for a newborn King. When they arrived at the place where Jesus was, they knelt down before Him and offered their rich gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. After experiencing the presence of the Lord, they return to their homeland.

The journey of the Magi is our journey too. Every step in our life we take in faith. We don't know what we are going to find on this journey, and we don't know for sure how God will reveal Himself to us. What we do know is that God will certainly lead us, if only we let Him. Many times we are reluctant to entrust ourselves completely to God. We would rather find our own way instead of following the path that God has prepared for us. But when we try to find our own way, we are going to get lost and discouraged. When we try to go on our own, we do not experience the Light of Jesus Christ.

The Magi teach us today that we must walk by faith. When we experience the presence of Jesus Christ, we must then go back out into the world to share His light and love with the people around us. Let us pray that we may be like the Magi, who made their journey in faith, experienced the newborn King, offered their gifts, and returned to their homeland, changed by their journey.

"God hides nothing. His very work from the beginning is revelation—a casting aside of veil after veil, a showing unto men of truth after truth. On and on from fact divine He advances, until at length in His Son Jesus He unveils His very face." – George MacDonald

May God bless you,
Father Dave

Home Blessing on Epiphany

Traditionally on the feast of Epiphany, Catholics bless their homes and write the letters C, M and B and the numbers of the year at the top of their doors. The letters stand for the names of the three Magi:

Caspar, Melchior and Balthasar. They also represent the Latin blessing Christus mansionem benedicat, which means "May Christ bless this house." For a guide to blessing your home this Epiphany, visit usccb.org/prayers/blessing-home-and-household-epiphany.

Thank you for your generous giving!

Your financial support is vital to the well-being of our church and school. To make a gift simply scan the QR code or go to stephen.org/give.

Offertory envelopes may also be mailed to our office: 16701 S Street, Omaha, NE 68135.

“Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.” - Matthew 2:11

The image of the Magi kneeling before the infant Jesus and opening their treasure chests for Him is an image that we should all try to follow each day. In gratitude for all that we have been given, we are called to generously share all of our gifts, not just the ones we pick and choose. God wants us to be generous with everything, but especially that one thing that means the most to you.

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Life Explained:

Question: How are the feasts of the baptism of Jesus and the account of the wedding feast of Cana related to the Epiphany celebration?

Answer:

The Epiphany season focuses on revealing Jesus to the world. Following the Christmas celebration, the liturgical year lays out a series of manifestation points in which Jesus is made publicly known. From its very beginning, the Christian community highlighted three events in the life of Jesus. These are the Epiphany, the Baptism of the Lord and the wedding feast at Cana.

The Epiphany discloses Jesus to the world of the Gentiles, represented by the magi from the East. The accounts of Jesus' baptism reveal his identity and mission, along with exposing him to those to whom he was sent to minister. The miracle of turning water to wine at the wedding feast of Cana, unique to John's Gospel, is the first public sign that Jesus performs, thus manifesting his public identity and his powers.

Today in the Roman Church, these are usually celebrated on three successive Sundays: Epiphany, the Baptism of the Lord which is usually the next Sunday, and the wedding feast of Cana, which is proclaimed on the 2nd Sunday of Ordinary Time in lectionary year C.

These feasts connect around the concept of epiphany, public manifestation of Jesus to the world. They help us get to know more intimately who Jesus is and what he is about. Spend some time delving more deeply into your understanding of who Jesus is. Continue to cultivate these "epiphany" moments in your life.

HOLY HOUR FOR PRIESTS AND VOCATIONS WITH FR RALPH O'DONNELL

January 12 at 7 PM at Our Lady of Lourdes Church

Pray for priests and vocations before our Eucharistic Lord, receive benediction and hear Fr Ralph O'Donnell's vocation journey. Pope St John Paul II said, "The world looks to the priest, because it looks to Jesus. No one can see Christ, but everyone sees the priest, and through him, they wish to catch a glimpse of the Lord. Immense is the grandeur of the Lord. Immense is the grandeur and dignity of the priest."

Please join in praying for them at the monthly Holy Hour for Priests and Vocations the second Thursday of each month at Our Lady of Lourdes Church.
