6TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Again you have heard that it was said to your ancestors, Do not take a false oath, but make good to the Lord all that you vow."
- Mt 5:33

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Pastor's Message—From Father Dave

"Jesus said to his disciples: 'I tell you, unless your righteousness surpasses that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven. You have heard that it was said to your ancestors, 'You shall not kill; and whoever kills will be liable to judgment.' But I say to you, whoever is angry with his brother will be liable to judgment.'"

This weekend, Jesus is responding to critics who believe that he is trying to do away with the Law. Since Jews believe that fidelity to every detail of the Law is an expression of a person's fidelity to God, Our Lord's enemies are accusing him of not being faithful to God. Jesus tells his audience that he didn't come to do away with the Law but to complete or fulfill the Law. He then moves on to quote portions of the Law, which would have been memorized when they were children. Jesus says, "You have heard it said... But I say to you..." In this teaching, Jesus makes it very clear that the basic and general teaching of the Law isn't enough to guide his followers. For example, Jesus quotes the Commandment, "Thou shalt not kill," and then he adds that a person who is angry with another person is liable to the same judgment.

As a result of the original sin of Adam and Eve, our lives are filled with faults, shortcomings, and sins. There are things that we have said or done that we would like to take back because they have hurt someone else. We know that anger, lust, greed, lying, and so many other sins permeate our lives. As we see the sins in our lives, we should also see how much we need the grace and mercy of God. Only God can complete what is broken and empty in ourselves and in our human relationships.

This week, I ask that we all examine how Jesus "completes" us, and how he calls us to more faithful lives. I also ask that we take some time to pray about the people in our lives who have hurt us or that we have hurt by our words and actions. We can't pray and hope for unity in the Body of Christ unless we are willing to do our part.

"The most important ingredient we put into any relationship is not what we say or what we do, but what we are." – Steven R. Covey

God bless you,
Father Dave

"For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven." - Matthew 5:20

The Pharisees lived according to the letter of the law and they used this to elevate themselves above the other people. Jesus is clear – it's the love that you have in your heart, for God and others, that will get you to heaven. Simply following church rules to the letter and not out of love, does not necessarily put you on the path to heaven. Attending Sunday Mass and then gossiping about a fellow parishioner on the parking lot is an example of being a modern day Pharisee.

Dear Families,
I am very excited to share that I will be getting married this summer! While I can't wait to enter my married vocation, this also means that I will be moving to Atchison, KS this June where my fiancé, Jacob Connealy, works at Benedictine College. St. Stephen the Martyr has become a family to me and I couldn't be more grateful for all of you. I will be sad to leave at the end of May, but I also know the Lord will answer my prayer to send you someone perfect for the job. God bless you all and thank you for being a wonderful parish family! WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Life Explained:

Question:

What do the colors of the priest's and deacon's vestments mean?

Answer:

In the Roman Rite of the Catholic Church, the colors of the vestments evolved over the course of several centuries and there was wide variation both in the colors used, and in the feasts and seasons associated with particular colors. It was Pope Innocent III (d. 1216) who gave us the basic outline that was later prescribed by Pope Saint Pius V in 1570. The various colors remind us of the dominant themes of a particular season or celebration.

White: Used for the seasons of Christmas and Easter and in celebrations of the Lord, of Mary, the angels, and saints who were not martyrs. This color is also used in Masses for the dead, at baptisms, weddings and other festive celebrations.

Red: As the color of both blood and fire, red is used on Palm Sunday and Good Friday, as well as Pentecost and special celebrations of the Holy Spirit.
Moreover, red is used on the feasts and memorials of the Apostles and those saints who died as martyrs.

Violet: The color for Advent and Lent. Violet may also be used in Masses for the dead and on All Souls Day (November 2).

Green: A color of life and hope, green is used throughout Ordinary Time.

Other colors: Rose may be used on the Third Sunday of Advent and the Fourth Sunday of Lent, black may be used in Masses of the dead and on All Souls Day, gold or silver may be used on solemn occasions in place of white, red, or green. ©LPI
