3RD SUNDAY OF LENT

Jesus answered and said to her, "If you knew the gift of God and who is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him and he would have given you living
water." - Jn 4:10

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

©LUP

Pastor's Message—From Father Dave

"Jesus said to the Samaritan woman, 'Give me a drink.' The Samaritan woman said to Him, 'How can you, a Jew, ask me, a Samaritan woman, for a drink?'"

Jews considered Samaritans to be an evil, heretical group. They detested them even more than they detested pagans. Coupled with this reality, a Jewish man would never address a woman in public. In this Gospel, we have Jesus engaging in a conversation with a Samaritan woman—a woman who has had five husbands and is presently living with a man who is not her husband. Why would Jesus go out of His way to talk to her?

Jesus' request for water has a kind of childlike quality to it. Instead of hiding his need for a drink out of custom, fear, pride, or religion, Jesus lets down all of the barriers of prejudice and simply approaches her as a person—not as a pagan or a woman or a Samaritan or a sinner. Jesus teaches us that wonderful things can happen when we let our defenses down and we let go of our judgmental attitude toward others and just relate person-to-person.

There can be a lot of game playing that goes on in human relationships. One of the traits of Jesus is that He accepts people where they are and as they are. Pope Saint John XXIII said that the key to revealing God's love to others is first to accept people where they are rather than where we want them to be. I think that this is the key to healthy human relationships. Just as we want people to accept us as we are, we must have the same kind of acceptance, patience, and tolerance toward others. None of us is perfect, but we can become perfect as we love, forgive, and serve as Jesus did in His life on earth and as He does for us today.

How tolerant, accepting, and forgiving are we? How is God calling us to make an enemy a friend?

"It is understanding that gives us an ability to have peace. When we understand the other fellow's viewpoint, and he understands ours, then we can sit down and work out our differences." -Harry S. Truman

God Bless you,
Father Dave

"Go forth from the land of your kinsfolk and from your father's house to a land that I will show you."

Genesis 12:1

God calls all of us to leave behind our old ways and to follow Him, placing our complete trust in Him. Some of the old ways that we struggle to leave behind might be materialism, selfishness and greed. Yet, God promises to show us a new land and a better way to live. Remember what St. Teresa of Calcutta said, "God does not call us to be successful, God calls us to be faithful."

Contact Brenda Kreber at 402-203-5196.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained:

Question:

Why does the date of Easter change every year, while most other celebrations are celebrated on the same day?

Answer:

Every feast is celebrated at a certain time for a reason. Saints feast days are commonly the day of their death. While we don't know Jesus' exact birthday, we celebrate the "light of the world" around the time of winter solstice, as dark, wintery days begin to lengthen again. We have a historical clue, however, to when the Easter events occurred. We know that Jesus was crucified the day before Passover. The Jews calculated the date for Passover based on both the solar and lunar calendars. It corresponds to the first full moon after the spring equinox. The early Christians maintained this connection in their celebrations of Easter on the first Sunday after the paschal full moon. We don't re-calculate the full moon every year. As astronomy developed, so too did the forecasts of when Easter would occur in future years. The Church has created a table of calculated dates, projecting the date of Easter decades in advance.

The date of Easter also determines the date of Ash Wednesday and the season of Lent, as well as the feast days following in the Easter season, including Pentecost. So these feasts move, too! This tradition may seem complicated, but it connects our Christian faith now to what has come before — our Jewish roots and the real, historical reality of Christ's suffering, death, and resurrection. ©LPi

ROSARY MAKERS

St. Stephen the Martyr has a group of parishioners that gather monthly (Sept-May) to make a variety of rosaries and pray for those in need. The rosaries are given to various groups/organizations within our parish and the Omaha area.

If you or someone you know would like to join the group or know someone in need of a rosary, please contact Sara Klein at 402-690-3526 or Deacon Denny Dethlefs at 402-861-4538.

Journey of Faith – Family T: Winter 2023 Update

Immaculate Conception at Boys Town
St. Stephen the Martyr | St. Vincent de Paul | St. Wenceslaus

Journey of Faith is a pastoral planning initiative in the Archdiocese of Omaha designed to respond to the change that is happening in the world around us and within the Archdiocese of Omaha. Specifically, Journey of Faith is designed to address the reality of fewer available priests and dropping numbers of active parishioners.

One of the first steps in this plan was organizing the Archdiocese's parishes into "Families of Parishes". This modern-day approach of uniting a group of parishes into one family of faith will allow us to share our resources and focus on our vision to become missional communities.

Immaculate Conception at Boys Town, St. Stephen the Martyr, St. Vincent de Paul, and St. Wenceslaus have been brought together to serve our community as "Family T". Representatives from each of the parishes in our family have met and identified three major areas of opportunity that will move us closer to our Big Goal of becoming missional parishes. These areas are Marriage Preparation; Young Adult Ministry; and Communications. Together we developed a working plan for the next year that outlines how we can collaborate in these areas. This plan was submitted to and approved by Archbishop Lucas.

As we collaborate, we are focused on looking beyond ourselves and discovering how we can bring mercy, strength, and forgiveness to all of God's people. We will provide periodic updates on our progress in our focus areas, and we ask you to continue to pray for our family as we move forward together.

Weekly Prayer

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

"Strike the rock, and the water will flow from it for the people to drink." (Ex 17:6)

Psalm:

If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.
(Ps 95)

Second Reading:

And hope does not disappoint,
because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts
through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us.
(Rom 5:5)

Gospel:

"Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again;
but whoever drinks the water I shall give will never thirst;
the water I shall give will become in him
a spring of water welling up to eternal life." (Jn 4:13-14)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

As Christians, we are called to follow the example of the Samaritan woman — to rush out, and proclaim what we have seen, that by our testimony and our belief, others may know Christ. Or Sometimes, like the Samaritan woman, we can scarcely believe that God would meet us here in this fallen world. The truth of what he speaks and the beauty of what he proclaims is like a well of spring water in a dry desert. Do we dare accept the gift?

Director of Religious Education

View details online at: stephen.org/careers

Now Accepting Applications

The Director of Religious Education (DRE) is a parish minister who has acquired specialized training in religious studies, theology, and related areas. He/She provides leadership in the design and implementation of programs for adults, youth, and children to assist in building a solid foundation for adult spirituality, Christian living, and ministry. The DRE will empower parishioners to respond more fully to their baptismal call to word, worship, and service, mainly through reflection upon life experiences in the light of Jesus' Gospel and message. Learn more at stephen.org/careers.

Knights of Columbus Update

2023 Scholarship Application

This year the St. Stephen the Martyr Knights of Columbus are accepting applications for the 2023 Deacon Wesley Kreun Memorial Scholarship. This is not an academic scholarship, but instead the awards will be chosen based upon the applicant's service activities within the parish as well as any other charitable activities. There will be four, $500, one-year scholarships awarded to individuals attending local Catholic High Schools, as well as four, $1000, one-year scholarships awarded to individuals attending an accredited college or university. Applications can be picked up from the kiosk in the gathering space or in the parish office between now and April 30th. When you have completed your application, please submit it to the parish office. If you have any questions, please reach out to Hank Hardy at hhardy@janome-america.com. Thank you very much and God Bless!

God Bless America—Remembering Heroes

Fifty years ago on March 15, 1973, United States Navy Lt. Commander John McCain, better known later as Sen. John McCain from Arizona, was released to freedom after 5 ½ years in Vietnamese prison camps. In his words, "I had a lot of time to think and I came to the conclusion that one of the most important things in life - along with a man's family - is to make some contribution to his country."

We thank our Knights of Columbus for providing this information. The 4th Degree of Knights of Columbus is a Patriotic Degree. If you're interested in joining the Knights you can contact Recruitment Chair, Paul Kamphaus at (531) 484-6852.
