3RD SUNDAY OF EASTER

They set out at once and returned to Jerusalem where they found gathered together the eleven and those with them who were saying, "The Lord has truly been raised and has appeared to Simon!"

Pastor's Message—From Father Dave

"And He said to them, 'Oh, how foolish you are!
How slow of heart to believe all that the prophets spoke! Was it not necessary that the Christ should suffer these things and enter into His glory?'"

Two disciples meet a stranger on the road in our Gospel today and they begin to talk about their confusion and disappointment. They had been followers of the man that claimed to be the Son of God, the Messiah, but He was taken from them and put to death. The stranger, who reveals Himself at the end of the journey as the Risen Christ, tells His disciples that they are foolish and "slow of heart in believing all that the prophets spoke!" Jesus then interprets the Scriptures that refer to Him and He helps them to understand that redemption would come through suffering and death. At the end of the journey, when they enter the town of Emmaus, the two disciples invite Jesus to stay with them and share a meal. When the bread was broken and blessed by Jesus, the disciples' eyes were opened and they recognized the stranger as Jesus Christ. As soon as they recognized Him, He vanished. They then ran back to Jerusalem to tell the others that they had seen the Risen Christ!

It is in our journey of life that Jesus joins us and teaches us about His life, death and resurrection. Many times we don't recognize Jesus because He comes to us through the friends, family members, and strangers that enter our lives. We come to know the power of the resurrection when we gather for the Eucharist, when the Bread of Life is blessed, broken and shared. May our eyes be opened, so that we too may recognize how Jesus accompanies us and feeds us on this great journey that we call "life." When we feel hungry or empty, may we have the faith to know that only Jesus can fill us and satisfy us with the gift of His life.

"Don't walk in front of me; I may not follow. Don't walk behind me;
I may not lead. Walk beside me and be my friend." -Albert Camus

God Bless you, Father Dave

Congratulations!

Anna Milone and Garrett Josten

Our faith community wishes you many blessings!

Special Second Collection for Home & Foreign Missions this weekend

A special second collection will be taken up for the Home & Foreign Missions on behalf of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops this weekend at all Masses. Funds go to support missionary efforts in the United States and Latin America, Academic Scholarships for Catholic University of America, and upkeep of religious sites in the Holy Land. Scan the QR code to contribute. Thank you for supporting these missionary efforts.

“Did not our hearts burn within us while He talked to us on the road, while He opened to us the scriptures?” Luke 24:32

How often do you take the time to discern what Jesus is calling you to do with your life? Are your prayers always petitions, asking Jesus to do things for you? If so, that's a one-sided relationship. Living our faith means developing a personal relationship with Jesus. Just like any friendship, there is give and take, each side listening to each other and helping each other out. Take time, in silence, to listen to what Jesus is asking of you today.

A Note from Deacon Denny Dethlefs

Dear Parishioners,

After almost 57 years of full-time work including 12 years as the parish Pastoral & Spiritual Care Associate, I am announcing my retirement effective June 30, 2023. I will remain a deacon within our parish, but I am retiring from my staff role.

It has been my absolute privilege to be a part of your lives for these past 12 years. It has been a true gift from God that He offered me this opportunity to work and serve so many people in our wider community and those in our “faith family” at St. Stephen the Martyr.

I am confident that in leaving God will provide and prepare a path for our future. My plans going forward are a bit open-ended at this point, but if the next chapter of my life is half as rewarding as my time spent serving within the parish and my career, I will be one fortunate person. I heard the following quote: “You spend 90% of your adult life hoping for a long rest and the last 10% trying to convince the Lord that you’re actually not that tired.” Please accept my thanks and my appreciation for serving others. I wish you all the best.

Go with God’s blessings and my forever friendship,
Deacon Denny

School News

United in Christ to ignite the joy of faith, community, and learning.

- ⇒ Kindergarten Experience Days July 25th & 26th: Save the date new kinders! Our Kindergarten Experience Days replace the traditional “Kindergarten Round-Up” events and give our incoming Kindergarten class the opportunity to meet the Kinder teachers, their future classmates and get a taste of what Kindergarten will be like when they begin in August! Enrolled families will receive a registration email for the Experience Days in June.

Congratulations to our young people who received the Sacrament of Confirmation!
Our parish community will pray that you boldly live your faith in Jesus Christ.

*Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.
Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created. And you shall renew the face of the earth. God, who by the light of the Holy Spirit, did instruct the hearts of the faithful, grant that by the same Holy Spirit we may be truly wise and ever enjoy his consolations. Through the same Christ Our Lord.
Amen.*

WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained:

Question: What are the requirements for being a confirmation sponsor?

Answer: Although many dioceses have specific requirements for who can be a sponsor for the Sacrament of Confirmation, the Code of Canon Law identifies certain requirements that are true for all dioceses and parishes. First, the sponsor should be chosen by the one to be confirmed (or, in some cases, by the parents or even the pastor). Second, a sponsor must be at least sixteen years old (unless the local bishop has chosen another age, or a special exception has been made). Third, the sponsor must be a Catholic who has been confirmed and who has already received the Sacrament of the Eucharist.

Beyond this, they must lead "a life of faith in keeping with the function to be taken on." Fourth, they can have no sort of canonical penalty or impediment. Finally, they cannot be either the father or mother of the one to be confirmed (See Canons 893, §1 and 874, §1).

In some cultures, it is customary for one of the confirmand's godparents to act as sponsor, although this is not required by Church law. To learn about the requirements for your parish or diocese, you can consult your pastor or your parish or diocesan director of religious education or the diocese's office liturgy and worship. ©LPI

Weekly Prayer

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

"This man, delivered up by the set plan and foreknowledge of God,
you killed, using lawless men to crucify him.
But God raised him up, releasing him from the throes of death, because it was impossible for him to be held by it."
(Acts 2:23-24)

Psalm:

Lord, you will show us the path of life. (Ps 16) Or Alleluia.

Second Reading:

Conduct yourselves with reverence during the time
of your sojourning,
realizing that you were ransomed from your futile
conduct,
handed on by your ancestors,
not with perishable things like silver or gold
but with the precious blood of Christ as of a spotless unblemished lamb. (1 Pt 1:17-19)

Gospel:

And it happened that, while he was with them at table,
he took bread, said the blessing,
broke it, and gave it to them.
With that their eyes were opened and they recognized him, but he vanished from their sight. (Lk 24:30-31)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

It wasn't until Christ spoke the words of blessing over the bread that the eyes of the disciples were opened, and they saw him for who he was — God in flesh and blood before them. The Eucharist makes real what we otherwise would fail to see.

MUSIC IN CATHOLIC SCHOOLS SEEKING INSTRUMENT DONATIONS

Music in Catholic Schools is the 5th through 8th grade band program in the Omaha Archdiocese. We have a band instrument inventory that we use to provide instruments to those students whose families could not afford to rent or buy an instrument of their own. This is such a worthwhile program for all students! Do you have an instrument sitting around that you might be willing to donate to MCS? We are especially in need of Flutes, Clarinets, and Alto Saxophones, but we would also accept Oboes, Trumpets, French Horns, Trombones, Baritones/Euphoniums, Tubas, and Percussion Kits (snare drum, bells, or combo kit). Please contact Annette Wallace at amwallace@archomaha.org or call 402-827-3724.
