4TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

"Whoever enters through the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens it for him, and the sheep hear his voice, as the shepherd calls his own sheep by name and leads them out." - Jn 10:2-3

Pastor's Message—From Father Dave

"The shepherd calls His own sheep by name."

One of the challenges I had when I moved to Saint Patrick Parish in Fremont in 2017 was getting used to the noise of the trains just a couple of blocks away from my office and home. Because of the horns and the clatter of a very busy train yard just down the street, I had a number of sleepless nights that first summer. I finally decided to buy a fan that I had running every night that drowned out the noise that happened in my neighborhood.

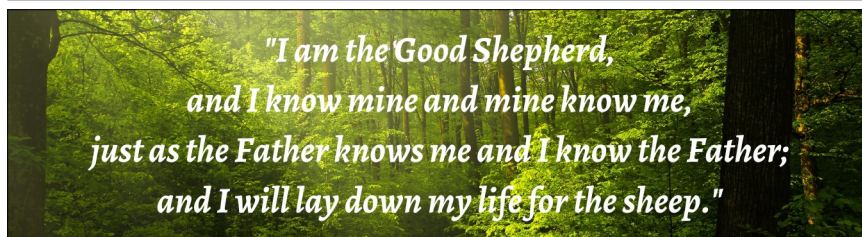

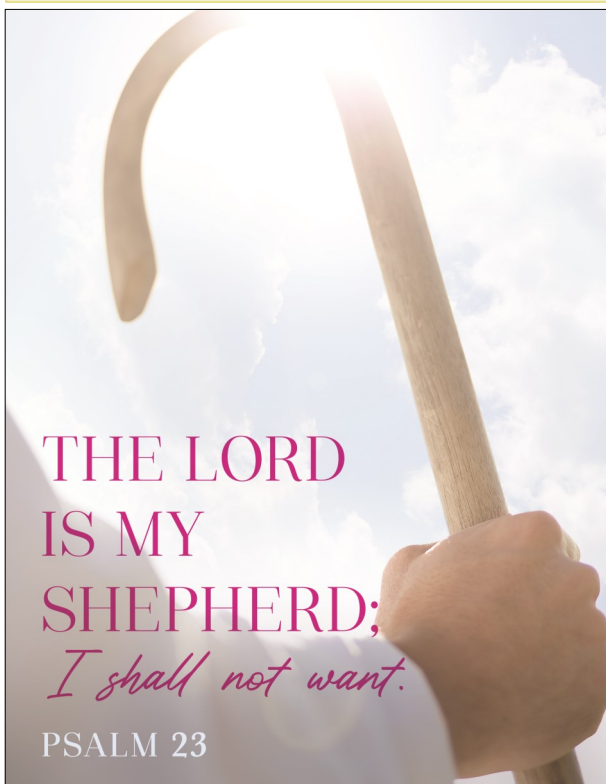

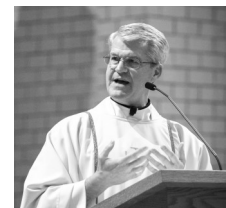

It's strange that we use noise to drown out noise, isn't it? Life gets so full of activity and busy-ness that we get used to the din. When we do have a moment of peace and quiet, we don't know how to act. But the reality is that it is in the quiet that we hear the voice of God, guiding us and filling us with His peace.

In our Gospel this weekend, Jesus uses the familiar image of the Good Shepherd. He says that, "The sheep hear His voice, as the shepherd calls out His own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has driven out all His own, He walks ahead of them, and the sheep follow Him, because they hear His voice." We are the sheep of this image, but there are many times that we fail to hear our names called because of the noise and busy-ness of life. Sometimes we may even fill our lives with activity because we want to avoid Jesus and what He has to say to us.

The only way that we are going to recognize the voice of the Shepherd is if we get away from the noise of life, quiet ourselves, and listen to what Jesus has to say to us. He is the only way to make it from the uncertainty of this life into the certain joy and peace of eternal life. In these busy and activity-filled days, let us make time in our schedules to be quiet, so that Jesus Christ, the Good Shepherd, may call us by name and speak His message of peace and hope to us.

"You have a God who hears you, the power of love behind you, the Holy Spirit within you, and all of heaven ahead of you. If you have the Shepherd, you have grace for every sin, direction for every turn, a candle for every corner and an anchor for every storm. You have everything you need." - Max Lucado

God Bless you,
Father Dave

JOY OF GIVING

APRIL 26, 2023

"And Peter said to them, 'Repent, and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ...'" Acts 2:38

The word "repent" means to turn from sin - to change our thoughts, words and actions. Change that is permanent comes from within - a transformation or conversion of heart. This requires prayer, discipline and perseverance. Change is hard. The first step is recognizing that we are broken and that we need God's help. The good news - we are not alone in our journey. Ask Jesus daily for guidance and patiently listen for his response.

Need help around your home?

The Cinnamon Stix are a group of retired men, several whom are members of the St. Stephen Knights of Columbus, and all of them are parishioners of St. Stephen the Martyr Catholic Church. They are available to assist senior, disabled, widow/widower parishioners with (most) any handyman type projects that you might need done around your residence. It might be a minor plumbing problem, electrical issue, or simply hanging a picture on the wall. We are not trying to replace a licensed contractor that might be needed for a major issue. If you need help call Steve Cinnamon at (402) 669-3441, and one of us will get in touch with you to see if we might be able to help you.

Blessings for Mothers

In the month of May honoring the Blessed Mother

Blessing for all Mothers

All Mothers will be asked to stand at all Masses on Mother's Day to receive a special blessing from Father. Thank you for your "yes" to God!

Blessing of Expectant Mothers

All expectant mothers are invited to the Daily Mass Chapel after Masses next weekend, May 5th & 6th, to receive a special blessing. Please pray for all mothers who are expecting new life, that their time is filled with good health and great joy.

Father in Heaven, Bless these mothers with the courage and faith of Mary, always listening to your will and trusting in your loving care. Amen.

Honor Every Mother in the Month of May

It is no coincidence that Mother's Day falls on the second Sunday of May. We celebrate the goodness born of springtime and of ultimate Goodness born of Mary and the goodness we receive from our own mothers. This year, in honor of Mary, here are some ideas to honor and walk with all mothers.

- ⇒ Help a mother struggling with groceries and small children to her car.
- ⇒ Look through your closet for professional attire you could donate to a women's shelter to give a mother a chance at a new job and a new life for her family.
- ⇒ Visit an elderly relative, friend, or neighbor who is widowed or lives on her own.
- ⇒ Donate to a charity that promotes small, woman-owned businesses in the developing world.
- ⇒ Congratulate a pregnant woman you see in public, she needs kindness and affirmation, especially if they may be carrying the child through some type of adversity.
- ⇒ Pray for all mothers, that they may echo the Blessed Mother's words when God calls them to have a child, "Let it be done to me according to your Word."

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Life Explained:

Question: Does it matter what leg you kneel on when genuflecting?

Answer: Genuflection is an act of devotion that literally means "to bend the knee." For many Catholics, it's an almost automatic gesture that we perform before entering our pew or row of seats at Mass. But, like many of the symbols and gestures of our faith tradition, genuflecting can also be an invitation for deeper reflection.

The practice of "bending the knee" is an ancient way of recognizing the presence of someone greater than we are. It has been said that the practice dates back to the time of Alexander the Great, but it became a common part of etiquette in the royal courts of the Middle Ages. From throne rooms and palaces, it was a small step to genuflecting, becoming part of the devotional lives of Christians who used this secular gesture as a way of recognizing the presence of the One who is King of Kings, especially in the Eucharist. In our tradition, although many have been taught or prefer to genuflect by placing their right knee on the ground, there is no prescribed way to genuflect. This is especially important to keep in mind if physical limitations or age make certain movements difficult for us.

Today, Catholics are asked to genuflect in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament (whether in the tabernacle or exposed on the altar during eucharistic adoration). So, while it has become second nature to genuflect before entering your seat in church, we should pay attention to where the Blessed Sacrament is kept in each church or chapel we visit, and genuflect in the direction of the tabernacle where the Blessed Sacrament is kept. In churches or chapels in which the tabernacle is in a separate space, we are invited to simply bow toward the altar. ©LPI

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

"Let the whole house of Israel know for certain that God has made both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom you crucified." (Acts 2:36)

Psalm:

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.
(Ps 23)
Or Alleluia.

Second Reading:

For you had gone astray like sheep,
but you have now returned to the shepherd and guardian of your souls. (1 Pt 2:25)

Gospel:

"I am the gate.
Whoever enters through me will be saved,
and will come in and go out and find pasture."
(Jn 10:9)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

We know the voice of our shepherd. We know he speaks a language of love, of patience, of long-suffering sacrifice. The voice of the thief will offer us freedom, but it is a freedom that ends in destruction. There is only one gate that leads to everlasting life.
