PENTECOST SUNDAY

Jesus said to them again,
"Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so
I send you." - Jn 20:21

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Pastor's Message—From Father Dave

"As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also is Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body..."

This weekend we celebrate Pentecost, the birthday of the Church, when Jesus sends His gift of the Holy Spirit to dwell with His people forever. The Spirit was given in different gifts: peacemaking, forgiving, speaking in tongues, healing, leading, dancing, singing, playing, and praising the Lord. Just as there are many, diverse people, there are many, diverse gifts that have been given to us for the building up of the Church.

There are many times when our diversity becomes a stumbling block instead of a reason to be thankful. Sometimes we look at people who are different than we are or who have different values or ideas and we criticize, judge, and reject. How boring it would be if everyone were the same! Instead, Jesus gives us His Spirit, which protects us, directs us, and binds us all together in peace. The Spirit calls us out of the locked rooms of prejudice, hatred, narrow mindedness, violence, exclusivity, and lack of forgiveness, so that we can live in unity. Through the gifts that have been given to us through the outpouring of the Spirit, may we build up the body of Christ, which is the Church.

"The gift of the Holy Spirit closes the last gap between the life of God and ours. When we allow the love of God to move in us, we can no longer distinguish ours and His; He becomes us, He lives in us. It is the first fruits of the Spirit, the beginning of our being made." - Austin Farrer

*God Bless you,
Father Dave*

Notes from the Parish Office:

Now Hiring

Pastoral Care Coordinator

Saint Stephen the Martyr Catholic Church is seeking a Pastoral Care Coordinator. The successful candidate will be a compassionate and caring individual who will oversee all apostolates that are dedicated to the physical and spiritual care of our parish community. The responsibilities of this position are shaped by the Works of Mercy of the Catholic Church and work in collaboration with the Pastor and Director of Mission. For more information or to apply, scan the QR code.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained:

Question: My friend has never heard of Christ and I want to share the Gospel with her but I'm afraid to. How do I share my faith?

Answer: There are a lot of ways to bring up the topic of religion without being judgmental or pushy. Begin by asking what her thoughts are about religion, or what her experience was growing up. Finding common ground is often easier than you think, because the questions and problems we have about God, the presence of evil, our purpose in life, and our relationship with God are universal concerns.

Why are you afraid? If you do not want to insult or offend someone, don't be pushy or judgmental. If you are uncertain about how to explain your own faith, do a little reading or practice with a friend. If you measure success only by this person converting, focus your attention more on beginning the conversation, not on bringing it to a perfect close! Faith is a journey of many acts of belief, many discussions about God, and many choices about how we practice what we preach. In some we will have great success; in others we will need forgiveness and perseverance. The most important thing to keep in mind is that the Holy Spirit is always at work and our most humble efforts can bear great fruit. Have faith in God because he has faith in you! ©LPi

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

The disciples at Pentecost were given the grace to speak in the tongues of many nations. When we engage with those who do not believe, who disagree with us, are we speaking the right language? We have to use the words they are able to understand — not just the words we want to say.

Observances for the week of May 28, 2023

Monday: Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church; Memorial Day
Tuesday: World Day of Prayer for Vocations
Wednesday: The Visitation of the Blessed Virgin Mary
