5TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

for you?" - Jn 14:2

Pastor's Message—From Father Dave

"Do not let your hearts be troubled. You have faith in God; have faith also in me. In my Father's house there are many dwelling places. If there were not, would I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you? I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me."

Jesus is speaking these comforting words to His Apostles on the night before he is put to death on the cross. They are sad, confused, and distressed to hear of what is to come. Even though Jesus will be raised from the dead and eventually ascend into heaven, He will be with them through the power of the Holy Spirit, whom He will send to be with the Church for all time.

"Do not let your hearts be troubled..." There are many times in life when we have troubled hearts, but Jesus reassures us today that He continues to be present to His people. He also comforts us with the reality that He is now in heaven preparing a place for those who have faith in Him. We pray today that, when our hearts are heavy with worry or grief that Jesus may make that burden light. We also look forward to the day when all of life's burdens are lifted from our shoulders and we take our place in the great mansion of heaven. Let us continue to hold on to the truth that Jesus is in heaven preparing an eternal home for us, where one day we will live with the angels and the saints.

"Faith consists in believing when it is beyond the power of reason to believe." - Voltaire

*God Bless you,
Father Dave*

"The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone."

1 Peter 2:7

Every person has been given gifts from the Holy Spirit. These are called "charisms" and they are used to build God's kingdom of earth. While many people are able to recognize their natural talents and abilities, they may be unsure of their charisms. If you know someone who is struggling for a direction in life, give them a little encouragement. Help them discern their charisms and how God is calling them to use them. Remember - no gift is too small or insignificant in God's salvation plan.

The Story of Our Lady of Fatima

On May 13, 1917, Lucia dos Santos (9) and her cousins Francisco (8) and Jacinta Marto (6) were tending sheep near the small town of Fatima when they had a vision of a woman surrounded by light who identified herself as the Lady of the Rosary.

Following the initial event, the children reported seeing the vision five more times, once each month through October. During her appearances, Our Lady of Fátima gave the children three secrets and repeatedly exhorted them to pray the rosary for world peace and emphasized the necessity of devotions to her Immaculate Heart in order for souls to be saved. The children also said that she told them God would perform a miracle on October 13 so that people would believe. A crowd estimated at about 70,000 gathered at Fátima on that day and witnessed what has been described as a miraculous solar phenomenon in which the Sun appeared to fall toward Earth—sometimes called the Miracle of the Sun—immediately after the lady's final appearance to the children.

The feast of Our Lady of Fatima is a day for Catholics worldwide to pray a rosary for world peace and the conversion of sinners.

"O my Jesus, forgive us our sins and save us from the fires of hell. Lead all souls to heaven, especially those most in need of Thy mercy."

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Life Explained:

Question: Are Catholics obligated to attend Mass each Sunday, or receive Communion each Sunday?

Answer: The questions about Mass attendance and the reception of Holy Communion are clearly outlined in what are traditionally called the "Precepts" of the Church. These specific teachings are intended to stand alongside the Ten Commandments as fundamental practices for Catholics and are outlined in the Code of Canon Law.

The obligations related to Mass attendance and receiving Communion are outlined in the first and third precepts, which we find quoted in the Catechism of the Catholic Church (no. 2042): The first precept ("You shall attend Mass on Sundays and holy days of obligation and rest from servile labor") requires the faithful to sanctify the day commemorating the Resurrection of the Lord as well as the principal liturgical feasts honoring the mysteries of the Lord, the Blessed Virgin Mary, and the saints; in the first place, by participating in the Eucharistic celebration, in which the Christian community is gathered, and by resting from those works and activities which could impede such a sanctification of these days.

The third precept ("You shall receive the sacrament of the Eucharist at least during the Easter season") guarantees as a minimum the reception of the Lord's Body and Blood in connection with the Paschal feasts, the origin and center of the Christian liturgy.

Rather than seeing these as obligations that are simply to be fulfilled out of a sense of duty, Pope Saint John Paul II reminds us of the grace that is made available to us when we gather for Sunday celebrations of the Eucharist: "Sunday is the day which is at the very heart of the Christian life...Time given to Christ is never time lost, but is rather time gained, so that our relationships and indeed our whole life may become more profoundly human" (Dies Domini, no. 7). ©LPi

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

So the Twelve called together the community of the disciples and said,
"It is not right for us to neglect the word of God to serve at table.
Brothers, select from among you seven reputable men, filled with the Spirit and wisdom, whom we shall appoint to this task, whereas we shall devote ourselves to prayer and to the ministry of the word." (Acts 6:2-4)

Psalm:

Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you. (Ps 33)
Or Alleluia.

Second Reading:

You are "a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people of his own, so that you may announce the praises" of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light. (1 Pt 2:9)

Gospel:

Jesus said to him,
"I am the way and the truth and the life.
No one comes to the Father except through me.
If you know me, then you will also know my Father."
