11TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. As you go, make this proclamation: 'The kingdom of heaven is at hand.'
Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse lepers, drive out demons. Without cost you have received; without cost you are to give." - Mt 10:6-8

Pastor's Message—From Father Dave

"Jesus said to His disciples, 'The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest' ...Jesus sent out these twelve after instructing them thus, 'Do not go into pagan territory or enter a Samaritan town. Go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.'"

It is curious to me that when Jesus calls the Twelve and sends them out to care for His "sheep," He tells them NOT to go to pagan territory. Instead, Jesus directs them to go to the "lost sheep of the house of Israel." It sounds like Jesus is excluding groups of people, especially those who are in most need of hearing the Good News. But the work of proclaiming the Gospel is just beginning. Jesus tells His Apostles to start at home, to start their ministry by caring for their own people. They are in need too. They are rejected, harassed, oppressed and hopeless. Before St. Matthew's Gospel ends, Jesus sends the Twelve to the ends of the earth, and Jesus promises that He will be with them until the end of time.

Like the Twelve, we are called to bring the Gospel message of reconciliation, peace, and joy to the world, but we must begin by "cleaning our own house." It is difficult to proclaim the Good News to the world when our own families, neighborhoods, communities and parish are in need of healing and reconciliation. Because Jesus is with us, through the power and the presence of the Holy Spirit, we have everything we need to be modern-day apostles in our community and in the world. I pray that the members of Saint Stephen the Martyr Parish may work together to build up the Body of Christ in our midst. We must continue the important task of making this world a better place to live, and the best way that we can do that is to start at home-- by sharing our faith, our love, and our forgiveness with one another.

"It is very significant that in every recorded instance the apostles were busy with their daily work when the Master called them. Peter and Andrew were fishing; James and John were mending their nets; Matthew was sitting at the receipt of custom. God never visits an idle or unserviceable life." - David Smith

God Bless you,
Father Dave

How is God calling you to build up his Church?

"And as you go, preach, saying the 'The kingdom of heaven has come near.'" How has Jesus called you to help Him build his Church? If you are discerning your vocation, contact Fr. Scott Schilmoeller, Vocations Director, at (402) 558-3100 or email: vocations@archomaha.org.

"Because there is one bread, we, who are many, are one body, for we all partake of the one bread."

1 Corinthians 10:17

As disciples of Jesus, we are called to lead holy lives and invite others to join us. We are called to be fed and to feed others. Living a stewardship lifestyle, being grateful and generous with our gifts, serves a twofold purpose. One, it helps build God's kingdom here on earth. Two, it helps us strengthen each other's relationship with God the Father, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit. It becomes our roadmap to Heaven. Let's help each other get there!

WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained:

Question: I've noticed that when I go to Mass at different parishes, sometimes people say and do different things. Why is that?

Answer: The Mass in its current form has taken shape over the course of 2,000 years. Over time, traditions, structures, and prayers have been put into place. There are certain rubrics for the Mass that are normative wherever you go. This means you could attend Mass in Malawi or Thailand or Italy and still watch the same basic liturgy unfold, even if you don't understand the language.

There may be some cultural differences from place to place, things that aren't specifically listed. For example, in the United States most people go up for Communion in a nice neat line. In Europe, everyone gets up around the same time. It's a bit of a free-for-all!

Some people might take it upon themselves to change things individually. People may not like something that feels too "liberal" or "conservative," and they may take a well-meaning stance in the opposite direction. When people (including the presiders) do things that are distracting or change the liturgy, it introduces an element that breaks the unity of the assembled community.

The important thing to remember is that we gather as the Body of Christ to celebrate the Eucharist. If you are confused, ask! If you are frustrated, pray for the spirit of charity.

Weekly Prayer

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

"Therefore, if you hearken to my voice and keep my covenant,
you shall be my special possession,
dearer to me than all other people,
though all the earth is mine.
You shall be to me a kingdom of priests, a holy nation." (Ex 19:5-6)

Psalm:

We are his people: the sheep of his flock. (Ps 100)

Second Reading:

Indeed, if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son,
how much more, once reconciled,
will we be saved by his life. (Rom 5:10)

Gospel:

Then he summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits to drive them out and to cure every disease and every illness. (Mt 10:1)
