Pastor's Message—From Father Dave

"The kingdom of heaven is like a net thrown into the sea, which collects fish of every kind. When it is full they haul it ashore and sit down to put what is good into buckets. What is bad they throw away. Thus it will be at the end of the age..."

Today's Gospel about the Kingdom of God is another blow to those who have a narrow understanding about who has a chance to make it into heaven. Jesus uses the image of a dragnet thrown into the sea, collecting fish of every kind, for the Kingdom of heaven. God will bring all kinds of people—saints and sinners alike—into heaven through His dragnet of love and forgiveness. The sorting will come later, and on God's terms, not ours.

God does not hope for our condemnation and punishment, but for the salvation and glory for all. And so the Church, like God, must cast her nets far and wide, invite any, admit many, serve the poor and the stranger, and hope for the salvation of our souls. We cannot see with God's eyes, so we do not know how God will judge any of us. All we can do is live a life of faithfulness and stewardship, serving the Lord and His people through our generous sharing of the many gifts that have been entrusted to us. It is not up to us to judge one another to be worthy of heaven—that's God's work.

"According to our Lord and Savior, the kingdom of God does not come in such a way as to be seen. No one will say, 'Look here it is!' or, 'There it is!' because the kingdom of God is within us. The Word is very near to us; it is on our lips and in our heart. It is clear from this that when a man prays that God's kingdom may come, he is praying as he should, for the kingdom of God which is within him, that it may rise, flourish, and reach its full growth." - Origen

God Bless you,
Father Dave

Answer God's call for your life

"Whatever you ask I shall give you." Ask in prayer to know your vocation! Seek and find ways to serve! Knock on the doors of those who can help guide you! If you think God may be offering you the grace of a vocation to the priesthood or consecrated life, contact Fr. Scott Schilmoeller, Vocations Director, at (402) 558-3100 or email: vocations@archomaha.org

"We know that all things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose." Romans 8:28

Do you really trust God? Do you really believe that God will provide all that you need? Faith is a challenge for everyone at times. Putting our trust in God, in everything we do, in good times and in bad, means that God's plan for our lives may be quite different than what we planned. When one door closes, another one opens. Trust in God, His plan is always better.

School News

United in Christ to ignite the joy of faith, community, and learning.

⇒ Back to School Event—August 14th: We are so excited to welcome our families back for another great school year! At our Back to School Event, you can plan to drop off your school supplies, meet your teachers, check out your classroom, and visit the various club & activities booths in the gym. You may come between 11 AM – 1 PM or 5-7 PM. More details will be posted on our website and emailed to families in early August!

⇒ We're Hiring Teacher Associates: More teacher associates are needed for the 2023-2024 school year. We have both part-time and full-time positions available. If you or someone you know is interested, please contact assistant principal, Greg Verraneault, at (402) 896-0754 or email g.verraneault@stephen.org.

⇒ Final Summer Play Date—August 13th: The goal of our summer play dates is to give children a chance to meet future classmates before the big day! All incoming PreK, TK & Kindergarten students are invited. Our final play date is August 13th from 11:35 AM—12:35 PM. Please visit our website to RSVP: school.stephen.org/summer-play-date.

⇒ We still have room for your student! We still have space in most classes for the 23-24 school year, including our preschool, Pre-K and Kindergarten classes! Request a tour or apply at school.stephen.org/admissions.

Religious Education News

⇒ Catechist Meeting: August 9th, 6:30 PM in the Dining Room

All Catechists signed up to teach this Fall are expected to attend our annual Catechist meeting on August 9th. Please come to this informative meeting to receive teaching materials, meet new staff members and coordinators, have some refreshments, and meet your fellow catechists. We are looking forward to seeing you there!

⇒ Share your faith!

St. Stephen the Martyr is pleased to share the Catholic faith with the children of our parish during the school year through weekly, in-person, after-school classes as part of our Religious Education program. This is an incredible opportunity to allow your child to encounter the peace, wisdom and understanding of Jesus Christ and his Catholic Church! We rely on adult and high school parishioners to volunteer as "Catechists," witnesses of the faith who teach and share the Catechism of the Catholic Church with children in our parish and prepare them to receive the Sacraments. We supply everything you need to present PREPARED LESSONS with K-8th grade students for one hour a week on Tuesday or Wednesday afternoon/evening. Call the RE Office for details.

⇒ Religious Education 2023-2024 Registration: If you have not registered your child/children yet, please do so! Registering them now helps us prepare for the correct number of students and catechists. Class times may be changed later if your schedule changes. Register online at stephen.org/re-registration or call our office if you have any questions at 402-896-5683.

Youth Ministry News

⇒ Summer Events for Middle Schoolers: Join us at "Better Together Tuesdays" on August 8th at St. Stephen the Martyr. Find more information at stephen.org/youth-ministry.

⇒ Summer Events for High Schoolers: Join us August 16th from 7-8 PM in the Parish Center for witness and small group and August 30th from 7-8 PM in the Worship Space for prayer and praise.

Staffing Update: New Liturgy Coordinator

Sam Jizba, who is currently serving as our Confirmation Coordinator, has accepted the additional position of Liturgy Coordinator. He will take on the additional responsibilities on Tuesday, August 1, and will be a full-time staff member. Please pray for Sam as he makes this transition to full-time service in our parish. Sam grew up here in Omaha and attended public schools ending at Omaha Northwest High School before heading off to college. He spent time at UNO, Metro, and Creighton as well as a year in Seminary Formation for the Archdiocese of Omaha at St. John Vianney Seminary in St. Paul, MN. Sam also spent years as Director of Youth Ministry at St. Elizabeth Ann and St. James parishes here in Omaha. Welcome, Sam!

A Note from Kris McGregor, former Director of Liturgy

"I praise and thank the Father in Heaven for having had the opportunity to serve St. Stephen the Martyr once again as Director of Liturgy this past year. It's been a true joy! However, after prayer and discernment, I have concluded that I need to step down from this position in order to give Discerning Hearts, the Catholic non-profit I helped found, my full professional and ministerial attention. My final day as a staff member will be July 29. This doesn't mean that my family is leaving St. Stephen the Martyr. We look forward to serving our beloved parish with our time, talent, and treasure. We love being parishioners at SSM! Thank you and God bless!" - Kris McGregor

Landscape Committee Volunteers Needed

The Landscape Committee is recruiting more help to care for the grounds at both the rectory and landscape beds at the parish. This may include weeding and watering of landscape beds that are outside of sprinkler heads. This could be a good opportunity for students needing service hours under the supervision of an adult. Please contact Steve Cinnamon at 402-669-3441 to see how you can help. Thank you.

Become a School Sponsor before tomorrow!

CALL FOR 2023-2024
CORPORATE SPONSORS

Interested in helping support our school while promoting your business? Become a 2023-24 St. Stephen the Martyr Corporate Sponsor! This year's fundraising efforts will help underwrite the cost of security updates including replacing classroom door handles/locks and upgrading our internal communications system for teachers and staff.

Additional funds raised will support our teachers & staff and help aid in equipment needed for our school. The deadline for sponsorships is July 31st. Contact Lori Havens at lorihavens80@gmail.com or visit school.stephen.org/corporate-sponsors.

Pray
THE ROSARY

First Saturday Devotions

Join the Knights of Columbus on August 5th for First Saturday Devotions to Mother Mary. We will pray the Rosary prior to the 8:15 AM Mass in the Worship Space.

Question: Why do priests kiss the altar at the start of Mass?

Answer: Our churches and chapels are filled with symbols. We might think of the more common symbols (like the crucifix, statues, stained-glass windows, vestment color and altar cloths) as well as major symbols (such as the paschal candle and the baptismal font). But there are some things that we can take for granted in our sacred spaces, because unfortunately, they seem to just be part of the building, including three of the main symbols of our liturgy: the ambo (lectern), the chair for the priest celebrant, and the altar.

These three objects are placed in a specially designated area called the sanctuary. They are the places where the Word of God is proclaimed, where the priest prays and presides at the celebration, and where the bread and wine are offered by the priest during the Eucharistic Prayer. Although each of these objects is sacred because of the role they play in our worship, the altar holds a special place. In a document containing the rules and instructions for the Mass — the "General Instruction of the Roman Missal" — we read: "The altar on which the Sacrifice of the Cross is made present under sacramental signs is also the table of the Lord to which the People of God is called together to participate in the Mass, as well as the center of the thanksgiving that is accomplished throughout the Eucharist" (no. 296).

One of the ways that we recognize the importance of the altar is when the priest and deacon kiss the altar at the beginning of Mass. Kissing is an ancient act of devotion. Remember, we also kiss the cross on Good Friday, and the deacon or priest kisses the "Book of the Gospels" after the Gospel is proclaimed. This act of devotion reminds us that the altar is a symbol of Jesus, the "living stone" (see 1 Peter 2:4), the foundation stone of our faith. It is a symbol gesture, but it is a powerful reminder of the One on whom our faith is built and in whose name we gather as the "household of faith" (see Galatians 6:10).

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

"Because you have asked for this—
not for a long life for yourself,
nor for riches,
nor for the life of your enemies,
but for understanding so that you may know what is right—
I do as you requested." (1 Kgs 3:11-12)

Psalm:

Lord, I love your commands. (Ps 119)

Second Reading:

For those he foreknew he also predestined
to be conformed to the image of his Son,
so that he might be the firstborn
among many brothers and sisters. (Rom 8:29)

Gospel:

"The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field,
which a person finds and hides again,
and out of joy goes and sells all that he has and buys that field." (Mt 13:44)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Following Christ will take everything we have.
Are we ready to give it all? At the end of our lives, let us hope we can say truthfully that we sold all we had in order to purchase the field which contained the great treasure.

Observances for the week of July 30, 2023

Women of Hope

Who Find God in ALL Things

A Silent Ignatian Retreat for Women
August 24-27, 2023
At Creighton University Retreat Center

This Ignatian retreat is designed especially for women using the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola. Get away from the hectic pace of life and take time to deepen your relationship with God by engaging your heart, mind, body and eternal soul.

Hear God speak to your heart in the community of silence. There will be 11 preached conferences by Sharon Doran who combines her love of Sacred Scripture with the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius.

Expect God to work in powerful ways through the promises of His revealed Word combined with the rhythm that St. Ignatius developed to contemplate it. The exercises are Holy Spirit inspired and the word of God is living and active, so each retreat is a non-repeatable experience.

You are invited to contemplate the hope-filled mysteries and learn to experience God in ALL things and walk together on life's journey.

There will be opportunities for Mass, confessions & spiritual direction.

Retreat costs based on single occupancy and includes meals —$425

Check-in between 4:30-5:30pm on Thursday & retreat concludes on Sunday at 2:30pm. Register using this QR code or at creighton.edu/curc
