Pastor's Message—From Father Dave

"I give praise to you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned you have revealed them to little ones."

Today we hear Jesus offering a prayer of praise to His Father in heaven. Jesus is proclaiming the paradox that the "wise and the learned" know nothing about the riches that God has to offer to us. Rather, it is the poor, the outcast, and the helpless who have seen the glory of God revealed through the love of Jesus Christ.

Being people of the kingdom has nothing to do with how much we know or how many books we read on Church teaching, morality, or spirituality. People of the kingdom of heaven are those who know God's love and mercy because they need God's presence and generosity. Those in the world who know what it means to be without shelter, food, clothing, freedom, and dignity are also those who are able to see God revealed in their lives. Sadly, the ones who set themselves up as experts and those who are powerful, wealthy, and famous will probably miss God's revelation of love because they rely too much upon themselves.

If we want to know God and experience His abundant life, we won't find it hiding in a book or in money or popularity. We find God when we listen to the voice of Jesus Christ and follow Him wherever He leads. For Jesus promises that if we take His "yoke" upon ourselves and learn from Him, we will indeed find rest. And for that reason, we give praise to our heavenly Father.

"Prayer is an aspiration of the heart. It is a simple glance directed to Heaven. It is a cry of gratitude and love in the midst of trial as well as joy."
-St. Therese of Lisieux

God Bless you,
Father Dave

Congratulations Newly Baptized!

Answer God's call for your life

"You are in the spirit, since the Spirit of God dwells in you." Is the Holy Spirit leading you or someone you know to serve Christ and His Church as a priest or in the consecrated life? If you are discerning your vocation, contact Fr. Scott Schilmoeller, Vocations Director, at (402) 558-3100 or email: vocations@archomaha.org

"For my yoke is easy, and my burden light." - Matthew 11:30

When we think of being good stewards, we may think that God is asking too much of us when He calls us to generously share our time, talent and treasure. However, we must remember that we are not "owners" of anything, we are merely "stewards" of the gifts God has given us. All He is asking is that we give back a small portion, in gratitude, of what He has already given to us.

Every year we receive a large number of qualified applicants, and there are numerous young adults in our parish doing wonderful things in our community. WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Life Explained:

Question: I have been away from the Church for a few years and really want to get active again, not so much for me, but for my children. Is this a bad reason to come back to Church?

Answer: If you are on your way to the supermarket, and you are forced to detour from your usual route because of road work, does the food you buy taste different? Is the meal less filling? Are the vegetables less tasty? Of course not. In our faith journey, there are many detours called sin. Some are greater than others, some are even a bit longer. But God's grace comes to us in ways we understand and recognize and need. Your children leading you back to the Church is not as important as the fact that you are back.

This is an opportunity for you to renew, strengthen, and deepen your faith. Regardless of how we get to Church, or what draws us closer to God, the fact is we are there. Do what you need to do to get right with God and the Church. Go to confession, begin good family religious practices, and be involved in the ministries your parish offers. Be more than a lukewarm parishioner. Be the kind of Catholic you want your children to be. ©LPI

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

The Christian life does not require wisdom, charisma, or strength — no, quite the opposite.
To be Christian, we must embrace our faults, our littleness, our shortcomings — gather them up, and lay them all at the feet of Jesus. There, they will be transformed.
