"Behold, I stand at the door and knock." - Rev 3:20

Jesus Christ invites each of us into a more perfect union with Him. All we must do is allow His grace to transform us.

- Are you a Catholic needing First Communion or Confirmation?
- Are you seeking Baptism or full communion with the Catholic Church?

The Becoming Catholic! program at St. Stephen the Martyr will help you deepen your relationship with Jesus Christ through a more intimate knowledge of His Church and Holy Scripture.

For more information, please contact Scott and Julie Tylski at tylskisj@cox.net, (402) 861-2209; or Adam Ybarra at a.ybarra@stephen.org, (402) 861-4507.

21ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

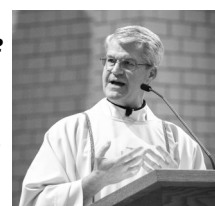

"I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven."
- Mt 16:19

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

ELPH

Pastor's Message—From Father Dave

"Jesus asked His disciples, 'Who do people say that the Son of Man is?' They replied, 'Some say John the Baptist, others Elijah, still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.' He said to them, 'Who do you say that I am?' Simon Peter said in reply, 'You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.'"

Most people are interested in knowing what others are saying about them. Jesus was no exception. Rumors were circulating everywhere about His identity. With Jesus ready to pass on the responsibility of leadership to His disciples, He wanted to make sure that they knew who He was. Peter gives an answer that is really a profession of faith in Jesus as Messiah. His answer earns him the "keys" to the kingdom of heaven.

During the time of Jesus, keys were given to stewards and trusted servants of a household. These trusted few had the authority to let people in and out of places where very important people lived. These words of Jesus to Peter conferred great authority upon him and gave him the power and authority to lead our young Church after the Ascension of Jesus into heaven.

I believe that anyone who holds the "keys" of the Church, that is, authority, leadership, and responsibility, must do so with great compassion, sensitivity, and concern for all—especially the least ones. The leaders of the Church must be learners and listeners, and do their best to respond to the needs of the people who are entrusted to them.

Authority in the Church means that those who lead our universal family of faith must embrace a life of service that reflects the great love, sacrifice, and humility of Jesus. Please continue to pray for all the individuals who hold positions of leadership and authority in our Church, especially for Pope Francis, Archbishop George Lucas, and for the priests that serve the Archdiocese of Omaha and Saint Stephen the Martyr Parish.

"For leadership there is only one road: service. There is no other way. If you have many qualities, the ability to communicate, etc., but you are not a servant, your leadership will fail, it is useless, it has not power to gather people together... Leadership must enter into service, but with a personal love for the people." -Pope Francis

God Bless you,
Father Dave

Congratulations Newly Baptized!

Thank you for your generous giving!

Your financial support is vital to the well-being of our church and school. To make a gift simply scan the QR code or go to stephen.org/give. Offertory envelopes may also be mailed to our office: 16701 S Street, Omaha, NE 68135.

What does God have planned?

"Who has known the mind of the Lord?"

Through prayer our minds become better aligned with the mind of Christ and His will for us. If the Spirit is prompting you to know Christ as a priest, deacon or in the consecrated life, contact Fr. Scott Schilmoeller, Vocations Director, at (402) 558-3100 or email: vocations@archomaha.org.

"Or who has given the Lord anything that he may be repaid?" - Romans 11:35

St. Paul reminds us of a central fact of stewardship. We cannot give God anything - He already owns it all. God made everything, including us. Since we are made in His image, we too, are called to be generous. How we use our God-given gifts becomes our gift back to Him. Gratitude for all we have been given opens our hearts to joyful generosity! And, through our generosity, we just may be the answer to someone else's prayer.

School News

United in Christ to ignite the joy of faith, community, and learning.

- ⇒ Substitute Teacher List: We need more substitutes for our amazing teachers at St. Stephen the Martyr Catholic School! All college graduates or anyone who has completed 60 credit hours & a human relations class/training are eligible. You do not need a teaching certificate. Interested or have questions? Contact Mr. Verraneault at g.verraneault@stephen.org or call (402) 896-0754.
- ⇒ Spirit Wear Fundraiser: Our 8th grade students, who will travel to Washington DC next spring, are hosting a spirit wear fundraiser! Stock up on some new gear to show your St. Stephen spirit! Spirit Wear can be worn on Martyr Mondays and other designated spirit days. The order deadline is September 1st. Get more info and order online at school.stephen.org/spirit-wear.
- ⇒ Teacher Wish List: Help our teachers have a great start to their school year by donating an item from their wish list! Your support of our teachers and school are greatly appreciated! View the lists here: school.stephen.org/teacher-wish-lists.

Religious Education News

- ⇒ RE Parent & Students meet in Worship Space for all classes this week. RE students do NOT report to their classrooms at the start of class this week. Instead, all students AND their parents should head directly to the church worship space at the beginning of all RE classes on August 29/30th! Father will offer a Welcome Blessing, and our DRE will be providing important parent information about the RE school year. After the welcome in the church, parents will accompany students to their classrooms to meet the catechists. Parents are then invited to the GPC for refreshments and fellowship while their children complete their class time. NOTE: This replaces the "Parent Meeting" which was held in years past during the first week of RE classes. Please make every effort to join your children!
- ⇒ Catechists needed! We still need adult and high school parishioners to volunteer as Catechists! While only a few classes still have no teachers, we also need co-catechists in many of our grades. If you are able to help, please reach out to the RE Office at (402) 896-5683.

Youth Ministry News

- ⇒ September Events for Middle Schoolers: Join us at "Better Together Tuesdays" on September 5th and 19th at St. Stephen the Martyr. Find more information at stephen.org/youth-ministry.
- ⇒ Summer Events for High Schoolers: Join us Wednesday, August 30th from 8-9 PM in the Worship Space for prayer and praise. Go to stephen.org/youth-ministry for future Witness Wednesday dates.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained:

Question: Why are Catholics required to give money to the Church?

Answer: Offering money and other goods to God and the Church is, before all else, a statement of gratitude. We see this when we look at how our spiritual ancestors showed their gratitude to God for the gifts they had received (e.g. Genesis 14:18-20 and Genesis 28:16-22). One of the ways they offered thanks to God was through a practice called "tithing," in which 10 percent of a person's goods (crops, livestock, money, etc.) were given back to God.

Today, the practice of tithing — giving 10 percent — is still common in many Protestant communities, but it is not required for Catholics. Instead, the Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches us that, "The faithful also have the duty of providing for the material needs of the Church, each according to [their] own abilities" (no. 2043). This means that, although we are not bound to practice "tithing" in the traditional sense, we do share a responsibility to share our money or other resources with our parish communities. Like our spiritual ancestors, we give as a sign of our gratitude for the many gifts that God has given to us.

Beyond this, we also share our resources with other Catholic organizations to help them finance their ministries, to continue and grow their outreach to the poor and the needy, and to provide just wages for their employees.

How much we give depends on our individual circumstances, but since we share a responsibility for the programs, outreach, and health of our parish communities and Catholic organizations, this question gives us a wonderful opportunity to ask some important questions about the quality of our giving and what our priorities are. Remember, we are only stewards of our time, talents, and treasures and as the First Letter of Peter reminds us, "As each one of you has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God's varied graces" (4:10).

Weekly Prayer

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

"I will place the key of the House of David on Eliakim's shoulder;
when he opens, no one shall shut,
when he shuts, no one shall open." (Is 22:22)

Psalm:

Lord, your love is eternal; do not forsake the work of your hands. (Ps 138)

Second Reading:

For from him and through him and for him are all things.

To him be glory forever. Amen. (Rom 11:36)

Gospel:

And so I say to you, you are Peter,
and upon this rock I will build my church,
and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it.

I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven."
(Mt 16:18-19)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

"Who do you say that I am?" Let our whole lives be the answer, given not in words, but in action. If the world looked at your life, your decisions, your words, and your deeds, would they conclude that you are a person who believes Christ is the son of the living God?

Observances for the week of August 27, 2023
