THE TRANSFIGURATION OF THE LORD

Jesus took Peter, James, and his brother, John, and led them up a high mountain by themselves. And he was transfigured before them; his face shone like the sun and his clothes became white as light. - Mt 17:1-2

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD. ©LP

Pastor's Message—From Father Dave

Then Peter said to Jesus in reply, "Lord, it is good that we are here. If you wish, I will make three tents here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud cast a shadow over them, then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to Him."

Today, we celebrate the great Feast of The Transfiguration of the Lord. In our Gospel from Saint Matthew, we hear that Jesus takes His closest friends (Peter, James, and John) up the mountain, which is where faithful people went to be close to God. In this time on the mountain, it is Jesus Himself that reveals the closeness of God. Jesus is transfigured before them, and "His face shone like the sun, and His clothes became white as light." Because Saint Matthew is writing to a community of Jewish converts, he connects the promises to their ancestors through Moses and Elijah, who appear with Jesus. In this moment, God shows that Jesus is the completion of the Old Covenant and reveals the New Covenant of salvation. As we heard on the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, God speaks from heaven to those on the mountain and says, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased." But during the Transfiguration, God adds, "Listen to Him."

We need that reminder, don't we? There are so many activities and people that are vying for our attention every day, but we need to make time to listen to Jesus. Just as Jesus took His friends to a quiet place, we need to find that quiet time to pray, listen, meditate on Scripture, adore the Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, and anything else that helps us to go to the mountaintop for a few minutes. Jesus, God's Beloved Son, has something to say to you. Are you ready to listen to Him?

"God places us in the world as His fellow workers-agents of transfiguration. We work with God so that injustice is transfigured into justice, so there will be more compassion and caring, that there will be more laughter and joy, that there will be more togetherness in God's world." -Archbishop Desmond Tutu

God Bless you,
Father Dave

Answer God's call for your life

"This is my beloved Son; listen to him." Are you being called to help the Lord feed His people with the truth of His gospel as a priest, deacon or in the consecrated life? If you think God may be calling you to serve Him more closely, contact Fr. Scott Schilmoeller, Vocations Director, at (402) 558-3100 or email: vocations@archomaha.org.

"...then from the cloud came a voice that said, 'This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to Him.'" - Matt 17:5

When Peter, James and John heard this they immediately fell prostrate to the ground and they "were very much afraid." We, too, may respond the same way when we hear God's voice. How many times do you become fearful when invited to participate more fully in the life of the Church? Or, when someone says something negative about the Church, are you afraid to respond? Remember, we too, are beloved sons and daughters of God; Jesus is there to help us, but we need to listen.

Question: Why do Parishes Offer Special Masses like Thanksgiving and Memorial Day, even though they're not Holy Days of Obligation? Am I obligated to attend?

Answer: Out of respect for the various civil celebrations that take place during the year, many dioceses and parishes will host special Masses. However, while it always worthwhile to come together to worship as a community, Catholics are not obligated to attend these celebrations. As the Catechism of the Catholic Church notes, the only times that we are obligated to participate in celebrations of the Eucharist are on Sundays and holy days of obligation:

The first precept ("You shall attend Mass on Sundays and holy days of obligation and rest from servile labor") requires the faithful to sanctify the day commemorating the Resurrection of the Lord as well as the principal liturgical feasts honoring the mysteries of the Lord, the Blessed Virgin Mary, and the saints; in the first place, by participating in the Eucharistic celebration, in which the Christian community is gathered, and by resting from those works and activities which could impede such a sanctification of these days. ©LPI

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

His clothing was bright as snow,
and the hair on his head as white as wool;
his throne was flames of fire,
with wheels of burning fire. (Dn 7:9)

Psalm:

The Lord is king, the Most High over all the earth.
(Ps 97)

Second Reading:

When that unique declaration came to him from the
majestic glory,
"This is my Son, my beloved, with whom I am well pleased."
We ourselves heard this voice come from heaven
while we were with him on the holy mountain.
(2 Pt 1:17-18)

Gospel:

And he was transfigured before them;
his face shone like the sun
and his clothes became white as light. (Mt 17:2)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

"Do not tell the vision to anyone until the Son of Man has been raised from the dead," Jesus told his disciples. Why keep such an amazing thing as the Transfiguration a secret? Because the world wasn't ready for the end of the story yet. Sometimes, the glory only makes sense after the trials.

Women of Hope Who Find God in ALL Things

A Silent Ignatian Retreat for Women
August 24-27, 2023
At Creighton University Retreat Center

This Ignatian retreat is designed especially for women using the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola. Get away from the hectic pace of life and take time to deepen your relationship with God by engaging your heart, mind, body and eternal soul.

Hear God speak to your heart in the community of silence. There will be 11 preached conferences by Sharon Doran who combines her love of Sacred Scripture with the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius.

Expect God to work in powerful ways through the promises of His revealed Word combined with the rhythm that St. Ignatius developed to contemplate it. The exercises are Holy Spirit inspired and the word of God is living and active, so each retreat is a non-repeatable experience.

You are invited to contemplate the hope-filled mysteries and learn to experience God in ALL things and walk together on life's journey.

There will be opportunities for Mass, confessions & spiritual direction.

Retreat costs based on single occupancy and includes meals — $425

Check-in between 4:30-5:30pm on Thursday & retreat concludes on Sunday at 2:30pm. Register using
