25TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Are you envious because I am generous?' Thus, the last will be first, and the first will be last."
- Mt 20:15-16

Pastor's Message—From Father Dave

"My friend, I am not cheating you. Did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage? Take what is yours and go. What if I wish to give this last one the same as you? Or am I not free to do as I wish with my own money? Are you envious because I am generous?"

This Gospel always seems to get people stirred up. Why should the latecomers to the vineyard get the exact same wage as those who went early in the morning? It is believed that this parable is addressed to those people who didn't like the fact that Jesus was receiving tax collectors and other notorious sinners into His life. There were a number of self-righteous people that believed it wasn't fair that these terrible sinners, these outcasts of society, should be given the gift of forgiveness and should be accepted into the mainstream of society.

We humans have a particular view of what is fair and isn't fair. The problem is that God's understanding of fairness is very different than ours. This parable teaches us that God is in charge and that He showers down His grace on everybody—early risers and latecomers. Even people who squandered their gifts and their lives will always have an opportunity to repent and receive eternal life.

Jesus is trying to reverse our thinking today about fairness and about how God works. We must always remember the bottom line of this parable: God's rewards are not earned. They are always gifts.

"No one has the right to sit down and feel hopeless. There is too much work to do." -Dorothy Day

God bless you,
Father Dave

Staffing Update

Please join me in thanking Evan Collins, our Director of Youth and Young Adult Ministry, for his service to St. Stephen the Martyr over the past year. After much prayer and discernment, Evan and his family are feeling called to continue their service to Christ through a new missionary role in Lafayette, LA. His last day at St. Stephen will be October 20th and we will begin our search for his replacement soon. Please pray for Evan and his family during this transition.

Thank you for your priesthood,

Fr. Dave & Fr. Zach!

Please pray for all priests today

Prayer for Priests: Gracious and loving God, we thank you for the gift of our priests. Through them, we experience your presence in the sacraments.

Help our priests to be strong in their vocation. Set their souls on fire with love for your people. Grant them the wisdom, understanding, and strength they need to follow in the footsteps of Jesus. Give them the words they need to spread the Gospel. Allow them to experience joy in their ministry. Help them to become instruments of your divine grace.

We ask this through Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns as our Eternal Priest. Amen.

Congratulations Newly Baptized!

Arthur Alan Smoyer, son of Brent and Elizabeth
Angelo Rey Sandoval, son of Ricardo and April

PRAY FOR VOCATIONS

Is your life for the Lord?

"Seek the Lord while He may be found..."

While seeking Him in prayer and the sacraments, listen to Him. Could it be you are being called by Jesus to serve as a priest, deacon, sister, or brother? If you think He may be offering you this grace, contact Fr. Scott Schilmoeller, Vocations Director, at (402) 558-3100 or email vocations@archomaha.org.

"Thus, the last will be first, and the first will be last". - Matthew 20:16

You've heard the saying "it's not where you start, but how you finish." This certainly applies to this Bible passage. We have a responsibility not only for our own lives, but for the lives of others as well. We are called to generously share our gifts with others, not hoard them for our own use. Our sincere gratitude and cheerful generosity will help us live "God-centered" lives and not "self-centered" lives.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained:

Question: Why are Catholic and Protestant Bibles different?

Answer: Since the earliest days of the Church, Christians used a Greek translation of the Old Testament known as the Septuagint. This collection of the texts of the Hebrew Scriptures included 46 books.

At the time of the Protestant Reformation in the 1500s, the Protestant reformers began to create their own translations of the Bible (into local languages) and some began to question why the Jewish Scriptures would have included texts that were written in Greek, because, they assumed, the only valid Jewish Scriptures would have been written in Hebrew. And so, they decided to remove seven books from the Old Testament: Baruch, Sirach, 1 and 2 Maccabees, Tobit, Judith and Wisdom (as well as portions of the Books of Daniel and Esther). This means that the Protestant Old Testament only includes 39 books, while Catholic Bibles continue to include those original 46 books. Both Catholic and Protestant Bibles include 27 books and letters in the New Testament. ©LPi
