Pastor's Message—From Father Dave

"I myself will pasture my sheep; I myself will give them rest, says the Lord. God. The lost I will seek out, the strayed I will bring back, the injured I will bind up, the sick I will heal..."

On this Feast of Christ the King, it is strange to hear God describe Himself as a Shepherd, a Servant who goes out and brings back all who have wandered away from the safety and security that only He can give to us. This passage from the first reading, taken from the book of Ezekiel, is in contrast to the image that we are given in the Gospel, where Jesus has come in glory, surrounded by angels, sitting upon His "glorious throne." Or is it?

What Jesus teaches us through His life, death, and resurrection is that the glory and joy that we experience in the life to come depends on the way that we serve God in this life. To share in the Kingship of Jesus Christ means that we have to humble ourselves and become like Him. Jesus is seated in glory upon His throne because He was completely faithful to the will of the Father. Our Lord was sent to bring the wandering and lost sheep back into the fold of God's love.

This is our mission too. There are many people in the world today that are lost and wounded. It is up to us to find them and bring them back to the love of God. That means that we have to be willing to sacrifice time and comfort in order to serve the needs of others.

If we want to participate in the glory of heaven, we must be willing to humble ourselves like a gentle shepherd, and serve the needs of those who are injured and in need of God's healing grace.

"For the Christian, to speak of power and strength means pointing to the power of the Cross and the strength of Jesus' love: a love that remains firm and whole, even in the face of rejection, and that appears as the fulfillment of a life spent in total self-offering for mankind." -Pope Francis

God bless you,
Father Dave

Now Hiring

Director of Youth & Young Adult Ministry

We're hiring a Director of Youth & Young Adult Ministry. Are you or someone you know interested? Visit stephen.org/careers for the job description.

"...whatever you did for one of the least of my brothers, you did for me."

— Matthew 25:40

Most of us are generous when it's convenient for us. We are generous when we have the time or the money. But, real generosity is the opposite of that. It means giving of one's time, money, compassion, forgiveness or mercy when it's not convenient to us, when it's not on our schedule, but on the other person's timeline.

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Life Explained:

Question: Why are some saints honored as "patron saints"?

Answer: Each person is unique and each of us has different gifts, interests, talents, and, yes, even struggles and areas where we need to grow. This is no less true of those holy women, men, and children who have been canonized or beatified. Because we believe that the saints and blessed are both models of faith and intercessors, Christians have looked to certain holy people as role models and heavenly protectors for occupations, spiritual charisms, and even places. Although the Church sometimes names a person as a patron saint (e.g. Saint Philip Neri as the patron of Rome, Saint Clare of Assisi as the patroness of television, or Saint Aloysius Gonzaga as the patron of youth and young adults), more often it is popular devotion that inspires lay Christians to turn to a particular saint or blessed for heavenly help and support. This is how, for example, Saint Cecilia came to be honored as the patroness of musicians, Saint Toribio Romo as patron of migrants coming into the United States, and Saint Gertrude of Nivelles as patroness of cat lovers. Although there are official and unofficial lists of patron saints, we should always feel free to ask any and all the saints to give us their patronage and protection in whatever it is that we need. ©LPi

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

As for you, my sheep, says the Lord GOD,
I will judge between one sheep and another,
between rams and goats. (Ez 34:17)

Psalm:

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.
(Ps 23)

Second Reading:

When everything is subjected to him,
then the Son himself will also be subjected to the one who subjected everything to him, so that God may be all in all. (1 Cor 15:28)

Gospel:

"When the Son of Man comes in his glory,
and all the angels with him,
he will sit upon his glorious throne,
and all the nations will be assembled before him.
And he will separate them one from another,
as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats."
