Pastor's Message—From Father Dave

"I rejoice heartily in the Lord, and in God is the joy of my soul; for He has clothed me with a robe of salvation and wrapped me in a mantle of justice... As the earth brings forth its plants, and a garden makes its growth spring up, so will the Lord God make justice and praise spring up before all the nations."

The prophet Isaiah narrated the history of the Israelites during the time when they turned their backs on God and failed to be faithful to the Covenant that God made with them. Because of their sinfulness and selfishness, they lost everything, the holy city Jerusalem and their beloved Temple was destroyed, and they ended up in captivity and slavery in Babylon. Eventually they repented and God sent King Cyrus of Persia to rescue them and to lead them safely home to Jerusalem, so they could rebuild their city, their Temple, and their lives. What did they ever do to deserve a second chance?

The answer? Nothing. The rescue from captivity and the ability to reestablish the Temple and their nation was simply a gift from God. As slaves in a foreign land, separated from the place where they worshiped, they had nothing—except hope. The prophet Isaiah was sent to the people to give them a taste of hope, helping them to know that God will continue to be faithful to His Covenant of love even when His people sinned and turned their backs to Him. For this reason, they rejoice and give thanks.

It is for the same reason that we give thanks and praise every time we gather to celebrate the Eucharist. We do not deserve the abundant love and forgiveness that God showers down upon us. We have done nothing to "earn" God's grace. It is a free gift that comes to all of His people—good and evil alike. It is up to us to open ourselves to God's goodness and to respond by giving thanks and by living lives in keeping with the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Advent is indeed a season of hope, when we recognize that we have not been faithful to the covenant that God has made with us, but that God continues to love us anyway. Let us be people of hope and joy, always aware that God will forgive us and give us every gift that we need to be His faithful, loving servants.

"Joy is prayer—Joy is strength—Joy is love—Joy is a net of love by which you can catch souls." - Mother Teresa of Calcutta

God bless you,
Father Dave

"The blind now see...the deaf hear, the dead are raised..."

The third Sunday of Advent is called "Gaudete Sunday" which is marked by a rose colored candle (rose symbolizes joy) on the Advent Wreath. Joy permeated creation at the birth of its savior, and Jesus' healing work began on earth. Let us be joyful! He is coming!

"Rejoice always. Pray without ceasing. Give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus."
— 1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

This scripture reading sums up Stewardship.

"Rejoice always" means place your trust in God; He will provide all that you need. "Pray constantly" means prayer should be a running conversation with God throughout the whole day, every day. "Give thanks in all circumstances" means even in bad situations, thank God. Suffering a little bit helps build empathy for others in similar situations and shows our dependence on God.

The Big Goal

"In six years, each parish in the Archdiocese of Omaha will be a Missional Community."

- Archbishop Lucas, October 2020

A missional community is made up of individuals who not only encounter and know His love but actively proclaim His love to the greater community. We must look beyond ourselves and discover how we can bring mercy, strength, and forgiveness to all of God's people. At St. Stephen the Martyr, we are focusing on three areas to aid our Parish in transforming into a missional community: 1) Collaborative Leadership, 2) Clear Path of Discipleship and 3), Culture of Generosity.

Culture of Generosity

This week, we are reviewing the Culture of Generosity, a way of Christian living where we come to know that all we have is a gift from God and we are invited to return those gifts with love to our Lord, our parish, and our community. We asked parishioners Chris and Lizzy Osterloh and Mike & Missy Adam to share how Culture of Generosity at St. Stephen the Martyr has impacted their lives. Please take the time to read the below messages from your fellow parishioners.

Mike & Missy Adam

Dear Fellow Parishioners,
The Lord has given each one of us natural talents and abilities and He calls us to be good stewards of all He has given to us. Through Jesus' time on Earth, He showed us the need for generosity in all that we do. As Jesus shared of Himself to all He encountered, so should we. In our family this concept of giving back and building community is an expectation. Growing up we were both raised in Catholic households that valued giving time, talent, and treasure. Continuing to build a Culture of Generosity is vital for the well-being and longevity of our parish community. We are working every day to try and answer the Lord's call to be generous.

When we were asked to help co-chair the Dinner and Auction, it seemed like an easy yes. We are thrilled to be able to share our talents with our community in this new way. It is amazing to see how many people are already involved in the makings of this event and we are excited to be a part of it. We invite you to be a witness to the power of generosity by keeping tabs on the Dinner and Auction happenings as well as discerning how you can answer the Lord's call to be generous. It is truly astonishing to witness the generosity of our community.

In Christ,
Mike and Missy Adam

About Mike & Missy: Mike and Missy Adam and their family have been parishioners for twenty-three years. They are currently in their first year of serving as Event Chairs for the Dinner and Auction. Missy is a member of the School Advisory Board, a former Home and School President, an EMHC and a part of the Family of Parishes Planning Team.

Chris & Lizzy Osterloh

Dear Fellow Parishioners,
We are all called to help foster a Culture of Generosity within our Parish family not only by the Archbishop, but by the Lord. It is humbling to see how many people invest their gifts and talents to both our church and school. This community is built on the generosity of our parishioners, and it is overwhelming to see the will of Jesus lived out at St. Stephen the Martyr.

We want to do our part in helping to build a Culture of Generosity here. We know that in order to see continued growth and involvement in our church, we must answer the call to live generously and give our gifts and talents. The Dinner and Auction particularly has been such a blessing for us because not only are we able to contribute to a successful event, but we are able to invite so many people to come with us on the journey. Last year we had over 80 people help us with the event that really were an answered prayer. It was amazing to see new people say "yes" to His call! There were so many others who contributed in other ways. We are excited to help chair the event for another year, and we hope that you have an opportunity to witness all that this community has to offer.

In Christ,
Chris and Lizzy Osterloh

About Chris & Lizzy: Chris and Lizzy Osterloh and their family have been parishioners for seven years. They are currently in their second year of serving as Event Chairs for the Dinner and Auction. Lizzy is involved in the Home and School Association and Chris is currently serving on our Pastoral Council.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained:

Question: What's the story behind the Advent wreath?

Answer: Each season in the liturgical calendar comes with its own local and regional rituals. During the Advent season, wreaths adorn church sanctuaries and family dining room tables. You may have said Advent wreath prayers in childhood or taken a turn lighting the candles. The Advent wreath is full of symbolism about Christ and his coming at Christmas. The wreath is made of evergreen boughs, reminding us that the life of grace doesn't falter with the changing seasons. It always remains fresh and new. Similarly, a circular wreath reminds us of the eternal, never-ending nature of God's love.

Candles remind us that Christ is the light of the world, the One who "shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it." We use four candles to represent each week of Advent. Traditionally they come in the liturgical colors of the season. Purple has historically represented penance and sacrifice. We see the same color for the season of Lent. On the third Sunday of Advent, however, we light a rose color. The priest will wear rose vestments at Mass. This is Gaudete Sunday. Gaudete means "rejoice" in Latin. On the third Sunday of Advent, we're roughly halfway through the season. The Church chooses the midpoint to remind us to celebrate in the midst of our anticipation! Whatever the color and whatever the day, the Advent wreath is a beautiful practice to focus our attention on Christ's coming at Christmas. ©LPi
