Pastor's Message—From Father Dave

"Brothers and sisters: Put on, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience, bearing with one another and forgiving one another, if one has a grievance against another; as the Lord has forgiven you, so must you also do."

It is appropriate to hear these words of Saint Paul proclaimed at the Holy Family liturgies this weekend. We would all like to have a family that was perfect, where the problems were minimal and everyone got along; however, the reality is that family life is messy and sometimes complicated. There are going to be misunderstandings and friction, but St. Paul reminds us that it is genuine love—and the fruits of that love—that will keep families strong and growing in faith and holiness.

On the Feast of the Holy Family, and into the New Year, let us give thanks for the gift of our own family. There are so many gifts and blessings that come to us from parents, brothers, sisters, children, and our extended family members. Even in the middle of the problems and everyday misunderstandings and busy-ness, God's grace will shine through, transforming our lives with love.

"Every effort to make society sensitive to the importance of the family is a great service to humanity."—Pope John Paul II

HAVE A BLESSED

new year

©LPI

On behalf of Father Zach, and myself, I would like to express our gratitude to all who remembered us in this Christmas Season with cards and gifts. Your generosity means a lot to us and we will continue to remember you in our daily prayers. May God continue to bless you with His love and grace!

*God bless you,
Father Dave*

Thank you for understanding and Happy New Year!

"...as the Lord has forgiven you, so you must forgive."

— Colossians 3:13

Forgiving is one of the hardest things for people to do. We can't give what we don't have. We need to receive God's mercy and forgiveness first before we can give it to others. Go to the sacrament of Reconciliation and receive God's mercy and forgiveness. Then, share the gift of forgiveness with someone – a family member, a friend or a co-worker. Pick up the phone or text someone right now.

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Life Explained:

Question: What are the servant songs of Isaiah? How do they relate to Jesus' life and ministry?

Answer: The four servant songs (Isaiah 42:1-4, 49:1-6, 50:4-9, and 52:13—53:12) are strategically placed in Second Isaiah to offer hope and consolation to a suffering Israel during its Babylonian Exile.

Israel had been defeated by the Babylonians, who destroyed their temple, killed the last of the kings in David's lineage, exiled them from their land, and transported them to Babylon. This is the context in which Second Isaiah composes his powerfully poetic book of hope and consolation. A significant part of that message is the portrait of God's servant, who is called to be a source of hope and encouragement for the people.

Each of the four poems emphasizes God's choice and election of the servant. The last poem stresses the suffering and rejection of God's servant, along with his eventual death. Isaiah is certain that God will use the servant's innocent suffering as a way to redeem and remove the guilt and sin of others. Thus, the servant becomes a source of salvation for himself and for others.

Who is this servant? Many suggest that Isaiah was referring to Israel herself, as she underwent exilic suffering which would ultimately prove to be redemptive. Jesus' followers, including those for whom Mark wrote his Gospel, understood Jesus' ministry in terms of Isaiah's suffering servant whose innocent suffering and death became the means of salvation for all. ©LPI
