2ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus turned and saw them following him and said to them, "What are you looking for?" They said to him, "Rabbi"—which translated means Teacher—"where are you staying?" He said to them, "Come, and you will see." - Jn 1:38-39a

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD

Pastor's Message—From Father Dave

"They said to Him, 'Rabbi'—which translated means Teacher—'where are you staying?' And He said to them, 'Come, and you will see.'"

Andrew and the mysterious "other disciple" approach Jesus and ask to spend some time with Him. As the two men spend the day with our Lord, they come to believe in Him and then go out to share the news with others. When Andrew leaves the house where Jesus is staying, he goes to his brother Peter and brings him back to Jesus.

I really believe that this is the best way for people to come to know the love that Jesus has for them. When we have a life-changing encounter with the Lord in prayer, worship, or serving our family of faith, we are then called to share that new life with the people around us. Just as Jesus invited Andrew and the "other disciple" to spend time with him; just as Andrew invited his brother to come to the Lord, we must invite others to share in the same life that we have received. This can be a little frightening because there is always the risk that we will be rejected or criticized by people. But we all know people who have been hurt or alienated by the Church. We all know people who aren't involved in the parish because of a decision that was made or a misunderstanding that may have taken place. We all know people who are searching for meaning and peace in their lives. Can we help those who are searching or hungry or in need of reconciliation? Absolutely! If we strive to be people of faith, spending time with Jesus in prayer, Sacrament, and service, we can be His ambassadors in the world, helping others to know the deep love and healing power that can only come from Jesus, the Rabbi.

"The vocation of each person merges, up to a certain point, with his very being: it can be said that vocation and person become just one thing. This means that in God's creative initiative there enters a particular act of love for those called not only to salvation, but also to the ministry of salvation." - Saint John Paul II

God bless you,
Father Dave

To contribute, place your donation in the second collection basket on Jan. 20th or 21st at Mass or mail a check donation to: Knights of Columbus, Culture of Life Foundation of Nebraska, 4770 Jean Marie Lane, Fort Calhoun, NE 68023. "Jesus turned and saw them following him and said to them, 'What are you looking for?'" - John 1:38

When we recognize who we are, it's easier to find what we are looking for. Once we see ourselves, and others, as children of God, we spend less time looking for the material comforts of the world. Instead, our hearts long for something deeper that can only be filled by God. Ask God daily how He wants you to live the life He intended for you.

Why Sign Up for 40 Hours Devotion?

A Message from Fr. Zach Tucker

As you consider signing up for our upcoming 40 Hours Devotion, the question may arise in your mind and heart, why? Why is it that we, as Catholics, pray before the Lord in the monstrance in Adoration? These are valid questions which have been asked many times over the history of the Church. Our recent Popes have offered their own insights into the practice, in an attempt to offer their own answers to these questions. In the words of Pope Benedict XVI in his Apostolic Exhortation entitled Sacramentum Caritatis, "In the Eucharist, the Son of God comes to meet us and desires to become one with us; eucharistic adoration is simply the natural consequence of the eucharistic celebration (the Mass), which is itself the Church's supreme act of adoration," (No. 66).

Pope Benedict goes on to say, "The personal relationship which the individual believer establishes with Jesus present in the Eucharist constantly points beyond itself to the whole communion of the Church and nourishes a fuller sense of membership in the Body of Christ. For this reason, besides encouraging individual believers to make time for personal prayer before the Sacrament of the Altar, I feel obliged to urge parishes and other church groups to set aside times for collective adoration," (No. 68).

Pope Francis echoed this same enduring truth of the Church, saying "It is good to adore in silence before the Most Blessed Sacrament, to be in the consoling presence of Jesus and there to draw the apostolic impetus to be instruments of goodness, tenderness and welcome in the community, the Church, and the world. ... Adore, immerse yourself in divine love and give it with full hands to those you meet on your path."

Eucharistic Adoration, whether personal or parish-wide through the 40 Hours Devotion, is never a solo endeavor. It is an outpouring of the Church's efforts for the salvation of souls, and an invitation for us to enter into that effort. We rest with Jesus, spending time with him, and we are individually consoled and nourished. From Him we receive the grace and strength to go out and seek to bring about renewal in our families, our workplaces, our parishes, and our world, so that others may come to encounter Christ as well!

WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained:

Question: Why do we make changes in the Mass? Some seem so small and unimportant. Are they really necessary?

Answer: The celebration of the Eucharist is at the heart of our identity as Catholics. Our purpose as a Church community revolves around the Eucharist. Everything we are and everything we do is measured not only by how well we celebrate, but also by how well we live the sacrament. If that is so, then we as a community will always strive to celebrate the Mass as best we can. The reasons for some changes might seem more obvious than others, but there is a reason behind each one.

The General Instruction of the Roman Missal is the introduction to the Missal that contains all the prayers for the celebration of the Mass. The Order of Mass we use now was issued in 1975 and, as often happens over the course of years, some questions have come up about the proper way of doing some things and whether or not other practices are acceptable. These changes clarify some things and make the celebration of the Mass more meaningful for everyone.

The opportunity is presented to us to better learn and understand each part of the Mass, which in turn should help us deepen our appreciation for its beauty and meaning. We will be a better Church if we have a clearer understanding and knowledge of Who and what we celebrate.
