3RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He walked along a little farther and saw James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John.
They too were in a boat mending their nets. Then he called them. So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him. - Mk 1:19-20

Pastor's Message—From Father Dave

"Jonah began his journey through the city, and had gone but a single day's walk announcing, 'Forty days more and Nineveh shall be destroyed,' when the people of Nineveh believed God; they proclaimed a fast and all of them, great and small, put on sackcloth."

Our first reading for this weekend recounts the story of Jonah and the message of repentance that he brought to the Ninevites. Jonah was a reluctant prophet, sent to speak to the sworn enemy of his people. Jonah couldn't care less if God was going to destroy the Ninevites; besides, he had planned on going to Tarshish, which was in the opposite direction of the city of Nineveh. It took a terrible storm at sea and three days in the belly of a large fish to convince Jonah otherwise. When the fish spit Jonah out of his mouth, Jonah found himself on the shore of Nineveh.

Even though Jonah was reluctant to do the Lord's work, the power of God's word, spoken through Jonah, entered into the hearts of this pagan people and they were suddenly converted to the faith. So great was their repentance that their acts of penance involved everyone from the king to the animals. Even God repented and He changed His mind about destroying the city.

When it comes to proclaiming the message of God's mercy, we are all reluctant prophets. Many times we are thinking about how sinfulness can be punished, instead of how merciful and forgiving God is. How often do we want revenge or we wish harm on someone who has hurt us in any way? We must remember the words of the Lord's Prayer, which we recite often: "Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us." If God did forgive us in the same way that we forgive others, would we be forgiven?

We must be convinced of the extraordinary power of God's forgiveness and love and share that message with others. As Jonah learned in Nineveh, God does have the power to transform people.

"Trust the past to the mercy of God, the present to his love, and the future to his providence." -Saint Augustine

*God bless you,
Father Dave*

"Follow me and I will make you fishers of men." - Mark 1:17

Jesus' call to "follow me" is a call to all Christians! The call is in the here and now, in our present circumstances, not when we think we are "ready" or have everything in order. Good stewardship of our God-given gifts means that things aren't always going to go according to our schedule, but that God has a much better plan in store for each of us.

Join your parish family at 40 Hours Devotion A Message of Encouragement from Fr. Zach Tucker

Perhaps you have heard the announcements or seen the bulletin pieces over the past couple of weeks inviting you to join us for 40 Hours Devotion, or 40 hours of Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, but you have had the thought "I've never done this before" or maybe "I don't know what I would do!"

I would encourage you, don't let those thoughts stop you from signing up for an hour! Our relationship with God works in many ways like all our other relationships. If we want to grow closer to someone else, we spend time with them, we learn to recognize how they communicate, what matters to them, and who they are.

In the same way, if we want to hear the voice of God, if we want to come to know Him and His plan for us more, then we must spend time with Him. The saints who have gone before us have encouraged us to run to Jesus present in the Holy Eucharist, to run to Him with all our needs, joys, fears, and uncertainties! It is in Adoration that we come to know The Lord and have the opportunity to gaze upon His Love made visible, His presence, Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity, in the Blessed Sacrament.

So, if you've never spent an hour in Eucharistic Adoration, don't be intimidated, there isn't a right or wrong way to do it! We tend to make things complicated in our heads, but it isn't difficult. To adore is simply to sit in the presence of Jesus, to receive from Him the grace He wishes to pour out upon you. You can pray a Rosary, read your Bible or another spiritual book, or even journal if you feel the need to "do" something, but it's not necessary. Though you probably have heard the term Holy Hour, any amount of time is acceptable as well.

Devotion to the Eucharist is one of the pillars of the Catholic Church because it is in the Eucharist that Jesus comes to us. Come spend an hour with Him, encounter His love for you, and be restored and refreshed through that encounter!

WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained:

Question: Can a person (the mother, father, or provider) ever be forgiven for an abortion?

Answer: For people of faith, any conversation of human sinfulness should always lead us to reflect on God's loving mercy. Because God's mercy is greater than any sin, the Church is clear that even those involved in the sin of abortion can be reconciled with God and the Church. To help make this grace more available through the Sacrament of Reconciliation, Pope Francis extended the permission to absolve someone of the sin of abortion to all priests in 2016.

Even with the grace and blessings of the Sacrament of Reconciliation, the tragedy of abortion and the aftermath of abortion takes a toll on everyone involved. Ministries of outreach and support, such as Project Rachel, offer pastoral counseling, support groups, retreats, and other forms of care. As Christians, we are also called to help promote this healing and reconciliation in all its forms.
