3RD SUNDAY OF EASTER

He said to them, "These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the law of Moses and in the prophets and psalms must be fulfilled ... You are witnesses of these things." - Lk 24:44, 48

Pastor's Message—From Father Dave

Jesus said to them, "Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things."

After Jesus appeared to the two disciples on the road to Emmaus and was revealed to them in the Breaking of the Bread, they hurried back to Jerusalem to share the great news that Jesus was indeed risen from the dead. While the group was together in the locked room of the Last Supper, discussing the amazing events of the day, Jesus appears in their midst. They are shocked and terrified! In response, Jesus invites them to look closely at Him and touch Him. He gives them His gift of peace and asks for something to eat. Jesus wants to convince His friends that they weren't dreaming or imagining His presence among them. He was counting on them to share with others what they had seen and experienced. Jesus then tells them what their message should be. He reminds them that Scripture foretold that the Son of God would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day, and that all should repent, so that their sins may be forgiven.

Because we have been baptized into the Body of Christ, our life's vocation is to bear witness to the power of the death and resurrection of Jesus in our own lives. Through the way that we live and speak, we offer a message to every person we meet that our faith in the Risen Christ fills us with joy and gives us the strength to continue through hardship and suffering. Let us pray that we may be a living witness every day that the power of Jesus, risen from the dead, has touched and transformed us.

"Keep back nothing. Nothing that you have not given away will ever be really yours. Nothing in you that has not died will ever be raised from the dead. Look for yourself, and you will find in the long run only hatred, loneliness, despair, rage, ruin, and decay. But look for Christ and you will find Him, and with Him, everything else thrown in." - C.S. Lewis

God Bless,
Father Dave

“Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, ‘Peace be with you.’ But they were startled and frightened...” - Luke 24:36-37

Throughout the day we have many opportunities to “see the face of Jesus” in others and to “be the face of Jesus” to others. Do we take that opportunity to provide “peace” to those we encounter or are we afraid of what others will think of us and do nothing? Pray for the strength and courage to live a “God-centered” life and not a “self-centered” life.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained:

Question: I've heard that we become angels when we die. Is this what the Church teaches?

Answer: As human beings, we are both spiritual and corporeal. We are body and soul. This makes us unique in all creation. No other physical creature — plant or animal — possesses an immortal soul made in God's image and likeness. Like the distinction with plants and animals, angels have an entirely different sort of existence. Angels are pure immortal spirit, and they have been so since the moment of their creation. While they may take on an appearance of a body in Biblical history, they are not a body like we are. Angels are neither male nor female, despite the art we often see. As the result of the Fall, human beings experience death. Our souls are temporarily separated from our bodies. However, we do not become something other than human. Every Sunday in the Creed we profess "I believe in the resurrection of the body." As Jesus was united with his body on the third day, so too will we be united with our bodies at the end of time. ©LPI

Introducing a groundbreaking new speaker series on the discernment of vocations within families! As parents, we want what's best for our children.
