2ND SUNDAY OF EASTER

Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed." - Jn 20:28-29

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Pastor's Message—From Father Dave

"Why are you troubled? And why do questions arise in your hearts? Look at my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Touch me and see, because a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you can see I have."

The appearance of Jesus in the locked upper room would have been a frightening experience, but it is more than just a dead man among them that startles the apostles. The evidence of the crucifixion verifies that it is indeed Jesus Christ risen from the dead.

The disciples were locked in that room because they were afraid of the civil and religious leaders. They were associated with the criminal who was put to death, and they feared for their own lives. But could it be that they were also afraid because they were responsible for the wounds in our Lord's hands and feet? When Jesus needed their support and their strength, they abandoned Him, betrayed Him, and denied Him. They had plenty of reasons to be afraid; yet Jesus greets them warmly by saying, "Peace be with you." Then He asks to share a meal with them, an act of humble intimacy.

Because of our sins and our failures, we are responsible for the wounds of Christ, crucified for us. But the good news is that He comes to us, He forgives us, and He offers us the gift of peace. This profound gift of Christ's presence comes to us in the Eucharist, which draws us all together on Sunday, the day of His resurrection. Let us give thanks for the abundant gift of peace and forgiveness which Jesus shares with us.

"Feed your faith and your doubts will starve to death." --Anonymous

*God Bless,
Father Dave*

Vocation Series Offered at St. Vincent de Paul

Introducing a groundbreaking new speaker series on the discernment of vocations within families! As parents, we want what's best for our children. But we often can get confused and lost in all of the distractions that the modern world throws at our families. How do we help our children to look past the distractions to find peace as teens and young adults so that they ultimately find happiness in the vocation for which God lovingly created them?

Each child was lovingly created by God for a specific purpose in life. For many it may be the married life; for some it may be a vocation to the priesthood or the consecrated religious life. This engaging series of talks is specifically crafted for parents seeking to nurture a level of spiritual peace in their children that will enable them to hear God's "quiet voice" in this noisy world. The series will be led by Deacon Patrick and LuAnn Simons who will share their experience with their four adult children and provide practical tips that will help you lead your children to true happiness as teens and young adults. Deacon and LuAnn are the founders of the Catholic Apostolate, aholylife.org. For free childcare, email maxsonl@svdpomaha.org.

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Life Explained:

Question: Where did the feast of Divine Mercy come from?

Answer:

If you were born well before the year 2000, you know the feast of Divine Mercy has not always been celebrated in the Church. In the early 1900s, a young Polish nun began receiving private revelations. Jesus appeared to her during her times of prayer, speaking a message of mercy and love for the world. She received a set of prayers — the Divine Mercy Chaplet — and the request to have a feast day established to remind the Church of the mercy of God. St. Faustina died in 1938, on the cusp of war and in the midst of one of the most violent centuries in the history of the world.

Her story and her diaries began circulating in Poland and beyond. It quickly became apparent that this was a holy young woman, and the cause for her canonization opened. In the year 2000, she was canonized by the first-ever Polish pope, St. John Paul II. On her canonization day, he established the second Sunday of Easter as Divine Mercy Sunday, "a perennial invitation to the Christian world to face, with confidence in divine benevolence, the difficulties and trials that mankind with experience in the years to come." ©LPI

Weekly Prayer

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

The community of believers was of one heart and mind,
and no one claimed that any of his possessions was his own,
but they had everything in common. (Acts 4:32)

Psalm:

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, his love is everlasting.
(Ps 118)
Or: Alleluia.

Second Reading:

For the love of God is this,
that we keep his commandments.
And his commandments are not burdensome,
for whoever is begotten by God conquers the world.
(1 Jn 5:3-4)

Gospel:

On the evening of that first day of the week,
when the doors were locked, where the disciples were,
for fear of the Jews,
Jesus came and stood in their midst
and said to them, "Peace be with you." (Jn 20:19)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

We find unfathomable mercy and everlasting love in the wounds of Christ — even when we are skeptical, even when we carry doubt. God meets us there in the confusion. He reaches for our hand and places them at his side. We just have to call his name.

And the angel being come in, said unto her: Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women. Who having heard, was troubled at his saying, and thought with herself what manner of salutation this should be. And the angel said to her: Fear not, Mary, for thou hast found grace with God. Behold thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and shalt bring forth a son; and thou shalt call his name Jesus. He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the most High; and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of David his father; and he shall reign in the house of Jacob for ever. And of his kingdom there shall be no end. And Mary said to the angel: How shall this be done, because I know not man? And the angel answering, said to her: The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the most High shall overshadow thee. And therefore also the Holy which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God. And behold thy cousin Elizabeth, she also hath conceived a son in her old age; and this is the sixth month with her that is called barren: Because no word shall be impossible with God. And Mary said: Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it done to me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her. And Mary rising up in those days, went into the hill country with haste into a city of Juda. And she entered into the house of Zachary, and saluted Elizabeth. And it came to pass, that when Elizabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the infant leaped in her womb. And Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Ghost. And she cried out with a loud voice, and said: Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb. Luke 1:28-42
