6TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

"It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name he may give you. This I command you: love one another." - Jn 15:16-17

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD. ©LPI

Pastor's Message—From Father Dave

"I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and your joy might be complete. This is my commandment: love one another as I love you."

How can we find complete joy in loving as Jesus loved? That would mean that every word, every thought, every act would bring people closer to God. That would mean that we would have to suffer and sacrifice what we wanted from life to embrace what God wants for our life. How could such love, where one's life would be poured out for another person, be joyful?

We have been taught by society that happiness and fulfillment come in surrounding ourselves with the "treasures" of this world. What the Gospel teaches us is that true happiness and joy can only come if we are willing to reject the values of society and embrace a life of service and sacrifice. This is tough work, a life-long task that can only be accomplished with the grace and strength of God.

Would we rather experience an empty, temporary happiness or a deep-down joy and peace that only God can give? If we want the deep-down joy, then that means that we have to be willing to love one another as Jesus loves us.

"In the twilight of life, God will not judge us on our earthly possessions and human successes, but on how well we've loved."

- Saint John of the Cross

God Bless,
Father Dave

"This is my commandment: love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends."

- John 15:12-13

Do you love Jesus? Do you consider Him your friend? Jesus says that if we love Him we would be willing to offer whatever we have to Him, not because we want praise and glory, but simply because we love Him. Does your giving seem mechanical out of obligation or do you share freely out of love?

WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained:

Question: My neighbor is just beginning to explore the Catholic faith but was raised agnostic. I grew up believing in God, praying, and attending Mass. How does one start from scratch as an adult to develop a relationship with God?

Answer: Start on a personal level! How did you and your neighbor become friends? How did you begin to discuss such a personal topic as faith? Communication, spending time together, and getting to know each other are essential to forming the bonds of a relationship. Personal prayer is essential to our relationship with God. We can't be close to someone we don't know! Invite your friend to explore the stories of Jesus in the Bible. Introduce them to the lives of the saints, especially ones you think they might be interested in.

Your neighbor might also have questions about the Catholic faith that you don't know how to answer. If your friend hasn't yet enrolled in RCIA classes, invite them to Mass at your parish. Introduce your friend to the faith formation director to make a connection. Personal support can be helpful as well, especially if few of your neighbor's current friends are practicing their faith. Connect your neighbor to other people in your parish living their faith well. The good examples of other faithful people could help your neighbor to feel welcomed and supported. Our Church is vibrant and alive! ©LPI
