12TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea,
"Quiet! Be still!" The wind ceased and there was great calm. Then he asked them,
"Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?"
- Mk 4:39-40

Pastor's Message—From Father Dave

"A violent squall came up and waves were breaking over the boat, so that it was already filling up. Jesus was in the stern, asleep on a cushion. They woke Him and said to Him, 'Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?'"

Ancient literature is filled with references to the power and danger of the sea. In the Old Testament, God is the Master of the sea and all things obey God. Remember the parting of the Red Sea, so that Moses could lead the Israelites out of slavery in Egypt? That was done by God's hand. So it is with the calming of the sea in our Gospel today. Saint Mark is showing that Jesus is God, because God is the only one who could bring peace to the chaos and wind of a terrible storm at sea. As the wind and the waves calm down, the disciples in the boat ask, "Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?"

Fear is such a common human emotion. Each of us has something that makes us afraid. The challenge is to turn to Jesus in those moments and days that we are gripped and paralyzed by fear, and ask Him to calm the storm. Only Jesus, sent by God, has the power to calm the chaos and uncertainty of our hearts and lives.

"When a train goes through a tunnel and it gets dark, you don't throw away your ticket and jump off. You sit still and trust the engineer."

-Corrie ten Boom

God Bless,
Father Dave

Emmaus

NEIGHBORS CONNECTING WITH NEIGHBORS

As Jesus shared his journey to Emmaus with His disciples, share in a journey with those around you through acts of love and charity.

Our new neighborhood outreach program, Emmaus, is off and running! We are called to share our Christian journey and to make Christ present to those around us. We want all those in our community to be known, loved, and cared for just as Christ cared for His disciples. Emmaus allows our parishioners to become missionary disciples in their own neighborhoods, bringing Christ's joy outside the church walls.

Two families have volunteered to be ambassadors in the Mission Hills neighborhood, building community in the hopes the relationships can become Christ-centered.

Ryan & Kali Robertson (above) began Emmaus this spring with a lemonade stand (left). The stand was donation-only and raised money for the Elkhorn Tornado victims. It was a great success and they were thrilled to meet new neighbors and together share God's love with those in need!

If you are interested in learning more about Emmaus or would like to connect with our Mission Hills Ambassadors, contact Adam Ybarra, Director of Mission, at a.ybarra@stephen.org.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained:

Question: We are considering homeschooling our children. Does this present a problem when it is time for them to receive the sacraments? What must we do?

Answer: Homeschooling is legal in all fifty states and like other types of education, has its advantages and its drawbacks. There are many factors to consider, and each family has to decide what the best way to educate its children is. With religious education, many dioceses have a formal policy that outlines procedures and expectations, some of which include more than just academic information. Call the religious education office to find out what they are for your area.

In general, though, an appointment with your parish priest to discuss your situation is the best first step. An opportunity to discuss what is available, what the expectations are for each sacrament, and how you can best prepare your child helps make your time of preparation more effective. The priest can direct you to good catechetical materials, parent information classes, and other choices and possibilities for your child. All parents need to be part of their child's religious education, taking a lead in instilling the values and beliefs of their faith.

Communication and information helps us all to teach and preach the Gospel as Jesus did. ©LPi

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

So often when we are weathering the storm, it feels like God is asleep — but we never even tried to wake Him up! Bring God your fears, your obey.
