10TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He said to them in reply,
"Who are my mother and my brothers?" And looking around at those seated in the circle he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers. For whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother." - Mk 3:33-35

Pastor's Message—From Father Dave

When His relatives heard of this they set out to seize Him, for they said, "He is out of His mind." The scribes who had come from Jerusalem said, "He is possessed by Beelzebul," and "By the prince of demons He drives out demons." Summoning them, He began to speak to them in parables, "How can Satan drive out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand.

It isn't too often that we hear this passage from the Gospel of Saint Mark proclaimed at Sunday Mass. It actually takes place early in the ministry of Jesus. But as He moves around the Sea of Galilee, the crowds start to gather and follow Him. The stories about Jesus healing and curing people, performing exorcisms, and teaching with love and mercy are spreading. There are many people who are drawn to what He is saying and doing, but there are also those who think that He is "out of his mind" or acting as an agent of the devil. Finally, His relatives are so concerned that they come to take Him out of this chaotic scene. Looking back on these scenes, we know that Jesus isn't filled with evil spirits or intentions. He is bringing the presence of God to people who are sick, dying, possessed, and troubled in many ways.

Isn't this what we desire in our relationship with Jesus? I think that sometimes we are comfortable living in the chaos because we come to believe that loneliness, broken relationships, and unsettled spirits are just a part of normal life. As He did when He walked the earth, Jesus wants to be a part of our lives today and bring healing and peace to us. May we come to experience the healing and merciful touch of Jesus through prayer, meditation on His Word in Scripture, through the gift of human love, and especially, through the Eucharist.

"Here is the Good News: Jesus is not out of His mind; Jesus is not filled with demonic spirits. Rather, Jesus has the mind of God; Jesus is filled with the Holy Spirit - and invites all of us to be of the same mind and same Spirit in a new family as His sisters and brothers." -David Ewart

"If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand." - Mark 3:24

Within your parish community, do your ministries collaborate with each other or do they compete against each other? Do your parish ministries work for the greater glory of God or do they work for the glory of the people running them? The primary goal of parish ministry is not to increase Mass attendance, increase the number of volunteers or increase offertory. The primary goal is to be one Body of Christ that helps people take one step closer to Jesus. If it's not doing that, it's not worth doing.

Is God calling you to become a Permanent Deacon?

Permanent Deacons are a "driving force for the Church's service" (Pope Paul VI) who animate, inspire and lead the faithful into service. The principal characteristic defining the Deacon is that he is ordained for the service of charity that knows no limits. Deacons are a living sign of Christ's presence and love. They are missionaries of the gospel who bring the Good News to the places where there is suffering, and who pay attention to the most marginalized. Deacons are men who can preach hope and encouragement to the weary.

If you think you are called to the Permanent Diaconate, please contact Fr. Dave at (402) 896-9675 before June 15.

Donations can be dropped off to Colleen Eusterwiemann in the Parish Center.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained:

Question: How do I bring God into the work of my daily life?

Answer: Whatever your daily work, you have an opportunity to encounter God and to follow His commandments in love. In the New Testament, we see that most of the Apostles didn't have a previous religious position. They were fishermen, tax collectors, and political activists. St. Paul was a tentmaker. Among the saints, we have doctors, lawyers, farmers, and stay-at-home moms. No matter your daily tasks, God can be present there!

One way concerns behavior. Start with an examination of conscience. Look at areas where you tend to struggle to imitate Christ at work. Do you gossip? Does brimming frustration become impatience at home? Pick one sin you struggle with, then choose a virtue to strengthen that area. If you tend to speak poorly of your co-workers, resolve to stop and to say one kind thing a day instead.

Another way relates to perspective, particularly your perspective of others. Jesus' incarnation reminds us of the value of every human being. Jesus is God, and each of us is created in God's image. When you encounter another person, you have an opportunity to see God in a new place and a new way — in that person in front of you. Genuinely listen to them and be present to their concerns. Loving your neighbor is loving God! Our relationship with God and the love He inspires in our hearts shouldn't remain only at church on Sunday. We can — and should — let our faith animate our lives! ©LPi
