19TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"I am the bread of life. Your ancestors ate the manna in the desert, but they died;
this is the bread that comes down from heaven so that one may eat it and not die."
- Jn 6:48-50

Pastor's Message—From Father Dave

"I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world."

This past week, I received an e-mail that included a story that I had seen before. In these weeks of hearing from the "Bread of Life" discourse from the Gospel of Saint John, I thought that it would be a good message for all of us to ponder...Why Go To Church?

A Church-goer wrote a letter to the editor of a newspaper and complained that it made no sense to go to church every Sunday. "I've gone for 30 years now," he wrote, "and in that time I have heard something like 3,000 sermons.
But for the life of me, I can't remember a single one of them. So, I think I'm wasting my time and the pastors are wasting theirs by giving sermons at all."

This started a real controversy in the "Letters to the Editor" column, much to the delight of the editor. It went on for weeks until someone wrote this clinger: "I've been married for 30 years now. In that time my wife has cooked some 32,000 meals. But, for the life of me, I cannot recall the entire menu for a single one of those meals. But I do know this. They all nourished me and gave me the strength I needed to do my work. If my wife had not given me these meals, I would be physically dead today. Likewise, if I had not gone to church for nourishment, I would be spiritually dead today!"

For Catholics, trying to live without the Eucharist is like trying to stay alive without adequate food. We turn to Jesus the Bread of Life, in prayer, service, Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, and the Sacraments—especially the Sacrament of Reconciliation and Sunday Mass. Without the spiritual nourishment that comes from Jesus through the Church, we are going to be weak and lifeless. Without the prayerful support of a family of faith and the food and drink of the Eucharist, we are not going to be strong enough to make this earthly journey to eternal life.

"If you're hankering for God, He's already found you for it is God who creates the hankering." - Gerald Mann

*In Christ,
Father Dave*

"Get up and eat or the journey will be too much for you!" 1 Kings 19:7

God knows that committing to a stewardship lifestyle is difficult. However, we were not designed to do it on our own, we need God's help. Fortunately, God gave us the greatest gift of all, His son, Jesus. Through the gift of the Eucharist, we unite our sacrifice with Jesus' sacrifice to do the will of God, Our Father. We receive the strength and courage to be His missionary disciples.

Religious Education

- ⇒ Catechist Meeting: TODAY, August 11th, at 2 PM in the Dining Room. All catechists who have signed up for the upcoming year are expected to attend. If you are interested in being a catechist or just want more information about what it entails, please join us today!
- ⇒ Why Religious Education? Our program invites, encourages, and equips children and their families to encounter, know and proclaim Christ! Through Religious Education, we strive to teach a deeper understanding of prayer and worship, as well as make known the love that God offers to all. We offer weekly, catechist-led classes for students in PreK through Grade 8 on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. We also offer a home-school RE program for parent-led faith formation in non-sacrament years. Lastly, we offer additional sacrament preparation for students who missed First Communion and Reconciliation in the second grade. Please reach out to discover how SSM Religious Education can support your family on your journey of faith! Call (402) 896-5683 for more information.
- ⇒ 2nd and 5th Grade Catechists needed! Please reach out to learn how you may share the faith with children of our parish. All materials are provided!
- ⇒ New RE Volunteer Opportunities: We have added a "Catechist Assistant" volunteer role this year for parents/grandparents/high school students who want to be involved in the classroom without the responsibilities of preparing and teaching the curriculum. To learn about this and all of our volunteer opportunities visit stephen.org/re-registration. Volunteers receive discounted or waived tuition. Please prayerfully consider signing up—we cannot do this without you!

Youth Ministry

- ⇒ Witness Wednesdays: Join us this week, Wednesday, August 14th from 8—9:30 PM in the Parish Center. We will spend time together learning from powerful witnesses to our faith. Snacks and drinks are provided. For more information, please visit stephen.org/witness-wednesdays.

The group will meet on Wednesdays starting September 5th from 9:30-11:00 AM in the Parish Center. The textbooks will be the Bible and the Shepherd's Notes book on "Acts". For more information or to register, email Deacon Marty at mwarwick3@cox.net.
- ⇒ Women's Bible Study on 2nd Saturday Mornings: Join other women of St. Stephen the Martyr parish once per month as we journey together through "Psalms II Praying With Jesus" by Kevin Perrotta. We will meet on the second Saturday of the month from 9 - 11 AM beginning September 14th. To register and reserve your book, contact Janice Dethlefs 402-651-0153.
- ⇒ Lectio Divina: Come and learn the Lectio Divina way to pray! Lectio Divina means "Divine Reading". Our women's group invites you to learn the practice of scriptural reading, meditation, and prayer to promote communion with God and to increase the knowledge of God's word. We meet the First Thursday of each month from 9:15 - 10:30 AM, beginning September 5th in the Parish Center. Questions? Contact Nancy at wiederholtncancy@hotmail.com.

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Life Explained:

Question: I've heard that faith is a theological virtue. What does that mean?

Answer: To say a virtue is theological means that it comes as a gift from God. St. Thomas Aquinas, a Dominican monk who crafted the famous arguments for the existence of God, wrote: "This alone is the true knowledge of God: to know that God is beyond knowing." God is transcendent. This word comes from the Latin "transcendere," meaning "to climb beyond." When something is transcendent, it exists beyond our normal range of experience. Philosopher Peter Kreeft put it simply: "God is always more." While God created us in His image and likeness, too often we re-create Him in ours. We project our deepest hopes, our subliminal fears, and our hidden dreams, and conjure up our own image of what God could be. Yet God can never be limited to our own perception of Him.

That's where faith comes in. We read in the Catechism that "faith is the theological virtue by which we believe in God and believe all that He has said and revealed to us and all that the Holy Church proposes for our belief" (CCC 1814). We can know God through reason, to a point. As human beings, we want to know and understand the world around us, but God isn't in the world around us. He's beyond it. The best way to come to know God is not through our own clever mental maneuvering, but through trusting in God's revelation of Himself. We might think we know who God is, but the only way we can have any idea is if we trust, through the virtue of faith, who He has revealed Himself to be. ©LPi

Weekly Prayer

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

He got up, ate, and drank;
then strengthened by that food, he walked forty days and forty nights to the mountain of God, Horeb. (1 Kgs 19:8)

Psalm:

Taste and see the goodness of the Lord. (Ps 34)

Second Reading:

So be imitators of God, as beloved children, and live in love,
as Christ loved us. (Eph 5:1-2)

Gospel:

"I am the living bread that came down from heaven;
whoever eats this bread will live forever;
and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world." (Jn 6:51)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Jesus tells us that he is the living bread that came down from heaven. His actions, his example, his teachings — they are not just words on a page, stories from a moth-eaten history book. They are life. They are food for our journey, and they are forever.
