33RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Amen, I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words
will not pass away.

"But of that day or hour, no
one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father." - Mk 13:30-32

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Pastor's Message—From Father Dave

"Learn a lesson from the fig tree. When its branch becomes tender and sprouts leaves, you know that summer is near. In the same way, when you see these things happening, know that he is near, at the gates."

Usually when we think of the end of the world, visions of terrible things come to mind. The Scriptures say that there will be wars, famines, earthquakes, persecutions, and other horrible events. Some believe that, because our world is experiencing some terrible and tragic events in the present day, we are nearing the end. But the Gospel today uses the gentle image of a sprouting fig tree. Jesus is saying that just when it looks like all is lost, God's everlasting kindness and mercy come to us. He brought this message to the world through his teaching and preaching, but most especially through his life of faithfulness. When life looks as empty and as barren as a fig tree in the middle of winter, it will be transformed by God's presence.

The Gospel message about the end times is not to be received with a feeling of doom or fear. Instead, we are called to look forward with hope, knowing that whatever pain or loss we are called to endure is temporary and that one day we will lay down all of our burdens. When life seems barren, look for the small signs of new life that are beginning to sprout.
God, who is eternal, is never too busy to supply every grace and gift that we need.

"All that I have seen has taught me to trust all that I have not seen." -
Ralph Waldo Emerson

*In Christ,
Father Dave*

Second Collection for Catholic Charities This Weekend

As a Christ-centered organization, and with mercy as the foundation of the Church, Catholic Charities translates the Gospel of Jesus Christ into action and seeks to transform the world by sharing God's mercy and compassionate love with all people.

To donate to this fund, contribute during Masses this weekend or scan the QR code to access the fund.

"Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away."

"And then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in the clouds' with great power and glory." (MARK 13:26) We will all have that day when we are standing before God and our life is played out like a movie. When this happens and God asks each of us, "What have you done with the gifts that I have given you?" How will you respond? The good news – it's never too late to start living a grateful and generous lifestyle.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained:

Question: Why do Catholics pray to Mary and the saints?

Answer: One of the statements of faith we make when we pray the Nicene Creed and the Apostles Creed is that we believe in "the communion of saints." The Catechism of the Catholic Church reminds us that this communion (another word for community) includes all the faithful on earth, the souls in Purgatory, and the blessed women, men, and children who are in heaven. This teaching is grounded in our belief that, through Baptism, we are united with Christ and to one another with bonds that are stronger even than death.

And so from the time of the early Church, Christians have turned to other believers for prayers and assistance, including those who have gone before us, confident that God hears the prayers of all of His children. While we ask the saints (and one another) for prayers and support, we remember that the saints join us in prayer. But it is God who blesses and sanctifies us.

When we think of Mary and the saints in heaven, we have to remember that we can turn to them for intercession and assistance because they were faulted, limited human beings, just like us. This means that they are able to understand our struggles, doubts, fears, joys, and hopes. But as we learn their stories, we can also begin to recognize that they stand out in the history of the Church because they persevered in their commitment to follow Christ. Whether they were ordained, vowed religious, martyrs, husbands, wives, or even children, they show us that holiness is possible. We can not only follow their example but also benefit from their prayerful support.

Our devotion to the saints and gratitude for their witness, prayers, and protection should also be an inspiration for us, especially when we become aware of the needs of others or when others ask us to pray for them. We are called to share the blessings we receive. This is also part of our own journey of growing in holiness. ©LPi

Weekly Prayer

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

"It shall be a time unsurpassed in distress
since nations began until that time.
At that time your people shall escape." (Dn 12:1)

Psalm:

You are my inheritance, O Lord! (Ps 16)

Second Reading:

For by one offering
he has made perfect forever those who are being consecrated. (Heb 10:14)

Gospel:

"And then he will send out the angels
and gather his elect from the four winds, from the end of the earth to the end of the sky." (Mk 13:27)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

It sometimes feels like God is silent, like he sets himself apart from us and our struggles
on earth. But Jesus reminds us of the fig tree, who can feel the coming of spring deep within itself. In the same intuitive way, we know the voice of God. Listen.

IXIM: SPIRIT OF SOLIDARITY – JOIN US ON MISSION: Thank you for supporting the Archdiocese of Omaha's mission to Guatemala! Since 2004, parishioners from across the Archdiocese of Omaha have gone to our sister diocese in Huehuetenango, Guatemala to work alongside our sisters and brothers in Christ. Our 20th trip will be June 12 – June 23, 2025. Learn more about how to join us on mission at an upcoming informational meeting: Mon., Dec. 9 at 7:00 PM at St. Leo Parish Center or Tues., Jan. 7 at 7:00PM at St. Stephen the Martyr Gonderinger Center. Use QR code to participate in our Zoom meetings (7 PM): Nov. 20, Dec.17, Jan. 9.

OMAHA ARCHDIOCECAN COUNCIL OF CATHOLIC WOMEN (OACCW):

OACCW will offer an annual scholarship to a female high school senior in the Archdiocese of Omaha in the amount of $750. This scholarship serves to enlighten, inform, and inspire young Catholic women regarding the OACCW as the major organization of Catholic Women in the Omaha Archdiocese. The scholarship will be awarded to a deserving high school senior woman who resides in or is affiliated with a parish within the Archdiocese of Omaha. Application deadline is Jan. 15th. To apply, visit <https://oaccw.org/home/about/#scholarship>.

CATHOLIC BUSINESS GROUP OMAHA MONTHLY NETWORKING EVENT:

Join us on Nov. 21st from 4:30—6:00 PM at the Nebraska Brewing Company Tap Room in La Vista. You will learn about local Catholic businesses, create business connections, and learn from others about Catholic resources here in Omaha. No reservations or cost required for this event. For other CBGO monthly events, visit: <https://cbgomaha.org/>

ROMAN FORUM TOASTMASTERS MEETING: Join our special Thanksgiving meeting on Wednesday, November 20th from 11:30 AM—12:30 PM in the Parish Center. The speaker will be Tom Johnson. Questions? Contact Tom at 402-598-4867.

GRIEFSHARE SUPPORT GROUP: A GriefShare support group is a safe, welcoming place where people understand the difficult emotions of grief. Through this 13-week group, you'll discover what to expect in the days ahead and what's "normal" in grief. Since there are no neat, orderly stages of grief, you'll learn helpful ways of coping with grief, in all its unpredictability—and gain solid support each step of the way. Upcoming Group scheduled at Mary Our Queen on Tuesdays at 6:30 PM begins January 28, 2025. Scan the QR code for more details.
