5TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men." When they brought their boats to the shore, they left everything and followed him. - Lk 5:10-11

Pastor's Message — From Father Dave

After he had finished speaking, Jesus said to Simon, "Put out into deep water and lower your nets for a catch." Simon said in reply, "Master, we have worked hard all night and have caught nothing, but at your command I will lower the nets." When they had done this, they caught a great number of fish and their nets were tearing.

This weekend's Gospel is St. Luke's version of Jesus calling Simon Peter to be his follower. Jesus asks Simon to bring him out away from the shore of Lake Gennesaret, so he can preach to the people from the water. When they are finished, he tells Simon to throw out his nets for a catch. Simon replies by saying that they have been fishing all night and have caught nothing, but at the command of Jesus, he will lower the nets. When they pulled in the nets, they were so full that they had to call another boat to help them. Simon and his companions, James and John, were so astonished and amazed at what they were seeing, so Simon asked Jesus to leave him, because he was a sinful man. Instead of leaving, Jesus tells Simon and his friends not to be afraid. "From now on," Jesus says, "You will be catching men."

How often have we been like Simon and his companions, working feverishly and coming up with empty nets? How many times have we felt like our lives are empty, even though they are filled with people and activities? Perhaps the reason is that we aren't listening to Jesus. Maybe our problem is that, even though we are busy doing good things, we aren't making time in our hectic lives to listen to Jesus give us direction.

Like Simon, James and John, we are called to be disciples. Following the Lord does mean that we recognize our own weakness and sinfulness, but it also requires that we trust in God's goodness and generosity. If we only listen to Jesus speak His love to us and follow the directions He gives us, we will know God's abundant grace.

We come to know this abundant grace whenever we gather to celebrate the Eucharist. We are nourished at the banquet table of God's love, and in turn we are called to go forth into the world to be God's instruments of healing and grace. We may be sinful people, but we are also chosen people. We are chosen to go into the world, to cast the nets of God's grace, and bring in people who long to feel love, forgiveness, and peace.

"All men should strive to learn before they die/ what they are running from and to and why." -James Thurber

In Christ,
Father Dave

Every day, in little ways and in big ways, God asks, "Whom shall I send?" Whether it is someone to take on a new ministry, to give a friendly smile to a stranger or to say a word of encouragement to a friend, God constantly provides opportunities to help someone in need. God is always talking to us; we just need to pay more attention. When you hear God calling have the courage to walk through the door and say, "Here I am, Lord." #stewardshipreflection

WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained:

Question: Would optional celibacy help the priest shortage?

Answer: This is a hotly debated topic. There are good arguments on both sides, and there is no clear answer that emerges. However, the shortage of clergy in denominations that do allow marriage would seem to indicate that optional celibacy is not the quick answer that some might think. No one solution is perfect. Each one has its flaws and problems that are not easily solved. While optional celibacy would open ordination to some great men who are married, it also brings the problems of family, financial support, marital problems, and issues—good and bad—of childrearing. So it would not seem that optional celibacy is a realistic solution to the shortage of clergy.

With all of the varied challenges and problems facing the Church, it is easy to forget that the Holy Spirit leads us. Openness, dialogue, and education are second to our prayers and petitions to the Holy Spirit to make clear the path the Church should follow. A response that is rooted in a culture of political correctness is almost certainly doomed; a response that is rooted in prayer and in God cannot fail. ©LPI

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

"I am a sinful man," says Simon Peter as he falls to his knees before Jesus. He had doubted the Lord, had hesitated to follow his instructions. How often can the same be said of us? Remember that God knows the outcome. He knows our nets will be filled. Do not be afraid.
