Pastor's Message — From Father Dave

"My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish. No one can take them out of my hand. My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one can take them out of the Father's hand."

This passage from St. John's Gospel has been a source of comfort for me for many years. It is good to know that there is nothing on this earth that will be able to separate us from the love and the grace of God. Our personal sins, disasters, people who don't like us or wish us harm, suffering, and death will never have a hold on us because God has His hold on each of us.

Jesus tells us today that God has spread His tent of love and protection over us. And at the end of our lives, we will never hunger or thirst again. We will never suffer pain or feel grief. We will never be lost in sin again. All of our tears will be wiped away. In other words, when we die, we will be understood, received, welcomed, and taken up into the loving arms of the One who created us.

Do you really feel secure in God's love today? Or are you uneasy, thinking that you aren't worthy of such great love or that you may not be "good" enough to make it to heaven? If you are concerned about these questions, or if you are concerned that a family member or friend may not be saved, what are the criteria by which you are judging yourselves and others? Jesus promises in today's Gospel that He will give His sheep eternal life. It doesn't say anything about having to earn that gift or that we have to do a certain number of good and virtuous deeds. All we have to do is believe, which is probably the most challenging part of living as a member of Jesus' flock. If we truly believed that the gift of eternal life belonged to us, it would make a huge difference in our lives and in the way that we lived, loved and served.

"If Jesus Christ is not true God, how could He help us?
If He is not true man, how could He help us?" -Dietrich Bonhoeffer

In Christ,
Father Dave

"The disciples were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit." ~Acts 13:52

The disciples heard Our Lord's call and were able to spread the Gospel message with strength and vitality. We, too, can experience that same joy if we make room for the Holy Spirit to fill our hearts. When we use our gifts in the way that God intends, He fills us with supernatural joy. A joy that others notice and are attracted to!

WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained:

Question: Why do Catholics genuflect?

Answer: Genuflection is an act of devotion that literally means "to bend the knee." For many Catholics, it's an almost automatic gesture that we perform before entering our pew or row of seats at Mass. But, like many of the symbols and gestures of our faith tradition, genuflecting can also be an invitation for deeper reflection.

The practice of "bending the knee" is an ancient way of recognizing the presence of someone greater than we are. It has been said that the practice dates back to the time of Alexander the Great, but it became a common part of etiquette in the royal courts of the Middle Ages. From throne rooms and palaces, it was a small step to genuflecting becoming part of the devotional lives of Christians, who used this secular gesture as a way of recognizing the presence of the One who is King of Kings, especially in the Eucharist.

Today, Catholics are asked to genuflect in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament (whether in the tabernacle or exposed on the altar during eucharistic adoration). So, while it has become second nature to genuflect before entering your seat in church, we should pay attention to where the Blessed Sacrament is kept in each church or chapel that we visit, and genuflect in the direction of the tabernacle where the Blessed Sacrament is kept. In churches or chapels in which the tabernacle is in a separate space, we are invited to simply bow toward the altar. In addition to genuflecting before the Blessed Sacrament, we are also instructed to genuflect before the cross used for veneration on Good Friday (during the solemn celebrations of the Lord's Passion) and any time a relic of the True Cross is displayed for veneration. This long-standing tradition is a way of honoring the cross as the great sign of our salvation and of showing devotion to the passion of Jesus. ©LPI
