THE HOLY FAMILY

"Rise, take the child and his mother and go to the land of Israel, for those who sought the child's life
are dead." - Mt 2:20

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD. ©LPI

Pastor's Message — From Father Dave

"Brothers and sisters: Put on, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience, bearing with one another and forgiving one another, if one has a grievance against another; as the Lord has forgiven you, so must you also do."

It's appropriate to hear these words of Saint Paul proclaimed at the Holy Family liturgies this weekend.

We would all like to have a family that was perfect, where the problems were minimal and everyone got along. However, the reality is that family life is messy and sometimes complicated. There are going to be misunderstandings and friction, but St. Paul reminds us that it is genuine love—and the fruits of that love—that will keep families strong and growing in faith and holiness.

On this Feast of the Holy Family, let us give thanks for the gift of our own family. There are so many gifts and blessings that come to us from our parents, brothers, sisters, children, and our extended family members. Even in the middle of the problems and everyday misunderstandings and busy-ness, God's grace will shine through, transforming our lives with love.

"A happy family is but an earlier heaven" -John Bowring.

*In Christ,
Father Dave*

WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained:

Question: If I go to the Sacrament of Penance and end up repeating the same sins, does that mean I do not have a strong enough intention to amend my life?

Answer: There is a popular expression that says, "Be patient. God isn't finished with me yet!" Growing in faith and holiness is an ongoing, life-long project, and our struggle with sin is at the heart of it. As St. Paul says, the good he intends to do, he does not do. The evil he does not intend, he does! It is not always a lack of intention, but more often the allure of evil that makes it difficult to change.

When we confess our sins, we are to come with a fully contrite heart. You need to reflect on your true feelings toward your actions before approaching the sacrament. After confession, there are strategies you can make to avoid falling into the same traps of sin. First, pray for and seek out strength and perseverance through multiple sacraments, charitable work, and personal sacrifice. Second, avoid occasions of sin when you might fail or be sorely tempted. In doing these things, remind yourself daily that it is a spiritual war we wage, and with God's grace, we will succeed. ©LPi
