PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

"Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord."
- Mt 21:9

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 C.C.D. ©L.P.

Pastor's Message — From Father Dave

"Before the cock crows you will deny me three times."

Palm Sunday marks the beginning of the holiest days of our Church year. This week our parish will join with all of the Catholic communities throughout the world in celebrating our Lord's passion, death, and resurrection. The liturgies that we celebrate this week will help draw us into the reality of the Paschal Mystery.

The season of Lent has prepared us for the journey through these holy days. Our prayer, fasting, and almsgiving have renewed our hearts through the grace of Jesus Christ, who died on the cross for our sins. The sacrifices that we made have helped peel away the layers of sin and neglect in our lives, so that we might enter the great mystery of new life that comes through suffering and death.

I encourage all of you to make time this week to participate in our Holy Week liturgies. They are some of the most beautiful liturgical events of our Catholic tradition. Also, if you have not yet celebrated the Sacrament of Reconciliation, we have times available this week. Finally, please pray for the many members of our parish family who will be receiving the Easter Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist in the Easter Season. Together, may we be nourished and strengthened by the Sacramental life of the Church, as we continue on our Pilgrimage to eternal life.

"The highest privilege there is, is the privilege of being allowed to share another's pain. You talk about your pleasures to your acquaintances; you talk about your troubles to your friends." - Fr. Andrew, Society of Divine Compassion (SDC)

In Christ, Father Dave

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Life Explained:

Question: Where do Palm Sunday palms come from and where should they go?

Answer: The Palm Sunday celebration has ancient origins. Beginning the liturgy "outside" the church, we symbolically reenact Christ's entry into Jerusalem. The crowds in ancient Israel waved palm branches - a symbol of royalty - to welcome Jesus. These days, obtaining palms takes a lot of planning and coordination, as hundreds of thousands of churches worldwide need them on the same day! Many in the United States order palms from Florida, California, Texas, or Central America. Many companies stress the sustainability of their production and the just wages paid to their workers.

The palms used on Palm Sunday are blessed at Mass. This means they shouldn't end up in the trash! Many people weave palms into crosses or families display them in their homes. If you do not plan on displaying your palms throughout the year, they should be burned, buried, or left at the church. In the final case, the palms are burned to provide the ashes for next year's Ash Wednesday service. ©LPi

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

I gave my back to those who beat me,
my cheeks to those who plucked my beard;
my face I did not shield
from buffets and spitting. (Is 50:6)

Psalm:

My God, my God, why have you abandoned me? (Ps 22)

Second Reading:

He humbled himself,
becoming obedient to the point of death,
even death on a cross.
Because of this, God greatly exalted him. (Phil 2:8-9)

Gospel:

The centurion and the men with him who were keeping watch over Jesus feared greatly when they saw the earthquake and all that was happening, and they said,
"Truly, this was the Son of God!" (Mt 26:54)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

This week, we see things that break our heart —
God betrayed. This week, we see things that shake our faith — God bleeding on a cross. This week, this Holy Week, with all its difficult moments, can change us, if we let it. Are we ready?
