PENTECOST SUNDAY

Jesus said to them again,
"Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so
I send you." - Jn 20:21

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Pastor's Message – From Father Dave

"As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also is Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body..."

This weekend we celebrate the birthday of the Church, when Jesus sends His gift of the Holy Spirit to dwell with His people forever. The Spirit was given in different gifts: peacemaking, forgiving, speaking in tongues, healing, leading, dancing, singing, playing, and praising the Lord. Just as there are many, diverse people, there are many, diverse gifts that have been given to us for the building up of the Church.

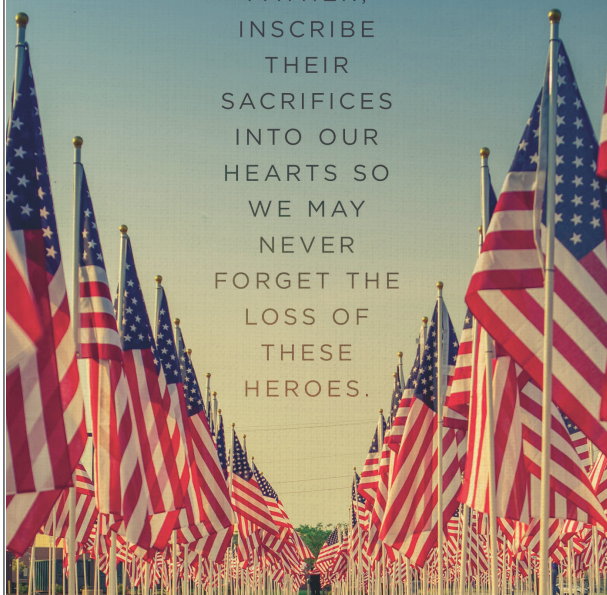

There are many times when our diversity becomes a stumbling block instead of a reason to be thankful. Sometimes we look at people who are different than we are or who have different values or ideas and we criticize, judge, and reject. How boring it would be if everyone were the same! Instead, Jesus gives us His Spirit, which protects us, directs us, and binds us all together in peace. The Spirit calls us out of the locked rooms of prejudice, hatred, narrow mindedness, violence, exclusivity, and lack of forgiveness so that we can live in unity. Through the gifts that have been given to us through the outpouring of the Spirit, may we build up the body of Christ, which is the Church.

"The gift of the Holy Spirit closes the last gap between the life of God and ours. When we allow the love of God to move in us, we can no longer distinguish ours and His; He becomes us, He lives in us. It is the first fruits of the Spirit, the beginning of our being made." – Austin Farrer

*In Christ,
Father Dave*

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Life Explained:

Question: Someone close to me has left the Church. How should I reach out to them?

Answer: For many of us, this can be a challenging question. When people we love leave the Church, we may not always know how to relate to them in certain ways. Are some conversation topics off limits? Are there certain behaviors or decisions we can't support in good conscience? When someone or something is lost, Jesus shows two different attitudes in his parables.

One is actively seeking. Don't give up on this person and their life of faith. Ask them about their spiritual journey. Invite them to spend time with you in faith settings, as appropriate, and outside of them. Continue in relationship with those you love.

The other attitude Jesus shows is consistent witness in the waiting. In the parable of the Prodigal Son, the father doesn't go after the son. He waits for his return. However, the son knows his father is trustworthy. He remembers his father's fair treatment of the hired hands and knows it is safe to return, despite all he has done.

Your ability to change someone is quite small. However, you can change yourself. Make sure you consistently treat others with kindness, compassion, and respect. If your loved one wants a deeper conversation, they'll know you are a person to trust, a place to which they can return. ©LPI

OUR JOURNEY TO 250 PRAY FOR OUR NATION

Pray for our nation leading up to our 250th Anniversary! The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops is acknowledging the contributions of Catholics in our nation's history and encouraging Catholics to pray in front of the Blessed Sacrament for the sanctity of the United States of America. In a historic moment, the U.S. bishops will consecrate the United States to the Sacred Heart of Jesus in June 2026 and invite all parishes to join in this consecration.

Let us walk this journey together — in faith, in gratitude, and in service. Scan the QR to learn more.

Pray for our Nation

As America nears its 250th anniversary, Catholics are invited to join a nationwide effort of prayer for renewal. Imagine the impact if one million people gave just one hour each week — together, we can help make this milestone a moment of spiritual renewal for our country.

We Met Our Goal!

Thank you to everyone who supported St. Stephen the Martyr during Nebraska Catholic Day of Giving! Thanks to your generosity, we reached our $4,000 goal. Your gifts will support faith formation and education for the youth in our parish and school community. We are grateful for every donation and prayer. Thank you for living out your faith through generosity and stewardship!

Weekly Prayer

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire,
which parted and came to rest on each one of them.
And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit. (Acts 2:3-4)

Psalm:

Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth. (Ps 104)
Or Alleluia.

Second Reading:

As a body is one though it has many parts,
and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body,
so also Christ. (1 Cor 12:12)

Gospel:

Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you.
As the Father has sent me, so I send you." (Jn 20:21)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Today, Jesus calls the Holy Spirit "the Advocate." The Latin for lawyer is "advocatus." Like a lawyer, the Holy Spirit defends us. The Holy Spirit guides us. So, when you're in trouble, don't forget: ask for your lawyer, and do what he tells you.
