THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

God so loved the world
that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. - Jn 3:16

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Pastor's Message – From Father Dave

"God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish
but might have eternal life."

These words, spoken to us on the Feast of the Holy Trinity, remind us that the relationship that God has with his people is deeply rooted in love. Even though human history is filled with sin and evil, God still chose to save us, forgive us, and lead us to eternal life. This is the commitment, the covenant that God has had with his people since the beginning of time, and it is fulfilled in the person of Jesus Christ.

On this Feast of the Holy Trinity, let us pray that we may recognize the presence of God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit in our lives and in our universe. Even though God is a Mystery, we come to know Him through the Sacraments, through prayer, and through the gift of human love. Let us continue to pray for ourselves and for our family of faith, that we may be messengers of God's love. Filled with the fire of the Holy Spirit, given to the Church on Pentecost, let us help others know the joy of being loved by our awesome God!

"The most beautiful thing we can experience is the mysterious. It is the source of all true art and science. He to whom this emotion is a stranger, who can no longer pause to wonder and stand rapt in awe, is as good as dead: his eyes are closed."* – Albert Einstein

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Life Explained:

Question: In some passages of the Bible, Jesus makes it sound like only a few people will be saved. But we talk about hoping for everyone's salvation. So which one is it — will many or few people be saved?

Answer: Salvation is a mystery of God's grace. St. Paul encourages us to offer prayers for everyone. He calls it "good and pleasing to God" because God Himself "wills everyone to be saved" (c.f. 1 Tm 2:1-4). The redemption that Jesus offers is held out to all of us. His sacrifice on the cross was already for everyone. Now it is a matter of if and how we accept that salvation in our own lives.

Here on earth, we can't possibly know the exact number of people who will be in heaven. When we hear words like "many" and "few," we tend to think of them in quantitative terms. Four wine glasses for six guests is too few. Three slices of cake for one person is too many. For God, however, "many" and "few" are qualitative terms. Imagine for a moment that nearly every human person is in heaven and only a handful had, by their actions on earth, separated themselves from God. For a God who infinitely loves, even one person spending eternity apart from Him is too many! ©LPi
