"Go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. As you go, make this proclamation: 'The kingdom of heaven is at hand.'
Cure the sick, raise the dead,

demons. Without cost you have received; without cost you are to give." - Mt 10:6-8

Pastor's Message – From Father Dave

"Then Jesus said to His disciples, 'The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for His harvest.'"

This weekend we hear Jesus tell His disciples that there are so many people in the world that need to be guided by the light of the Gospel. As He looks out upon the huge crowd that is pressing in on Him, he calls the twelve Apostles by name and gives them authority to do His work in the world.

This call by Jesus to the Apostles to announce that the Kingdom of God is at hand comes down to each one of us. By virtue of our Baptism, we are all called to be workers that bring in the abundant harvest of God's people. This is our primary vocation, and then it is up to us, with the guidance and grace of God, to discern how we are going to live out this Baptismal calling in the circumstances of our lives.

At this time of year, we are especially mindful that the work of the harvest often involves moments of transition. Within our own parish family, we recognize and give thanks to the members of our parish staff who will be moving into new parishes and ministries. We offer our gratitude to Father Matthew Pohlman (Associate Pastor), Adam Ybarra (Director of Mission), Amy Jones (Administrative Assistant), and Terri Samuelson (Rectory Housekeeper). Their generosity and dedication have been a true blessing to our community. While their transitions bring a sense of loss, they also remind us that God continues to call laborers into different areas of His vineyard.

Please keep these members of our parish staff in your prayers as they begin new chapters in their service to the Church. With our prayerful support, all who labor in the Lord's vineyard will be strengthened and filled with joy and hope as they continue their mission.

Let us continue to pray for all who serve the Church in ministry, especially those who are called to respond generously to the needs of God's people. The life of service in the Church often includes moments of transition and change, which can be both challenging and filled with grace. With our prayerful support, those who labor in the Lord's vineyard will be strengthened and filled with joy and hope as they continue their mission.

"We are not called to serve merely in order to receive a reward, but rather to imitate God, who made Himself a servant for our love. Nor are we called to serve only now and again, but to live in serving. Service is thus a way of life; indeed, it recapitulates the entire Christian way of life: serving God in adoration and prayer; being open and available; loving our neighbor with practical deeds; passionately working for the common good." -Pope Francis

CONSECRATION TO THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS

Bishops Consecrate the U.S.A. to the Sacred Heart of Jesus

On Thursday, June 11, as part of the celebration of the 250th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence, the U.S. bishops consecrated the United States of America to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

Prayer: O Most Sacred Heart of Jesus: You know the longings of our hearts, and you desire that we enjoy friendship with you. From your pierced side, you have poured out the wellspring of life, for which we thirst. Your heart burns with a love for all people to return to a right relationship with you. We celebrate the abundant gifts you have given this nation, founded on the self-evident truths that our Creator has endowed all people with the right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. We make reparation for the offenses against you and against human dignity that have taken place in this nation. May our hearts be united to yours, so that our families and communities enjoy peace and happiness; may broken relationships be reconciled, injustices repaired, and the wounds of our land be healed. May your holy Catholic Church serve as a sign, pointing all people to your infinite love. O Desire of Nations and Center of History, we ask you to bless these United States of America. Who live and reign with God the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, have mercy on us!
Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for us!

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Life Explained:

Question: A member of my parish was recently arrested for a white-collar crime. I don't approve of what he did, but he is a great neighbor and a nice person. How should I treat someone like him?

Answer: There is a litany of expressions that fit this situation: Everyone makes mistakes. Hate the sin, love the sinner. Judge not, lest you be judged. All of these proverbs and sayings highlight the fact that we are here to help each other on the way to salvation. Our hope and goal is that everyone grows in grace, drawing closer to God and to the promise of eternal life. Part of that process is our struggle, collectively and individually, with sin. And that is the ugly part. Sin is not nice, pretty, or inviting when laid out for all to see. Nor is it easy for the person caught in the spotlight.

Kindness and support are not the same thing as approval. We recognize that good people can do bad things and in their struggle, they need the help of others. Our kindness is often the flicker of hope that allows someone to face the consequences of sin while focusing on the promise of redemption. Your desire to help and support your neighbor is the response of grace to sin, and the same response of Jesus to us. ©LPI
