Pastor's Message – From Father Dave

"Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever does not take up his cross and follow me is not worthy of me..."

These words, spoken to the apostles by Jesus, sound kind of harsh. Why is Jesus telling the apostles not to love their family? Why would loving father and mother, brother and sister make a person "not worthy" of being called a follower of Jesus?

The truth is that Jesus is not telling the Twelve to love their family less than they do. What Jesus is saying is that their love for Him should surpass all human love. When we prioritize our lives and who is important in our lives, Jesus says that He should be "number 1." Everything else and everyone else in our life is secondary to the love that we share with Jesus Christ.

Think about how different our lives would be if we loved Jesus first. If we strive to love the Lord with our entire being, then our love for Jesus would have a profound effect on our love for family members and friends. The way that we live our faith colors every aspect of our lives. Let us pray that this summer may be a time of refreshment and renewal for us, so that we may come to realize the blessings that have been shared with us by our generous God. In turn, may we proclaim our gratitude in the way that we love Jesus Christ and His holy people.

"The healing of the world is in its nameless saints. Each separate star seems nothing, but a myriad scattered stars break up the night and make it beautiful." - Bayard Taylor

We thank Fr. Matthew for his faithful service as Associate Pastor at Saint Stephen and for the many ways he has strengthened our parish through his ministry. While we will miss him, we rejoice as he begins his new assignment as Associate Pastor at Saint Patrick in Gretna, Campus Minister at Skutt Catholic, and begins his studies in Canon Law through the Catholic University of America in Washington, DC. Please keep Fr. Matthew in your prayers as he begins this next chapter.

*In Christ,
Father Dave*

THANK YOU, FR. MATTHEW!

Thank you for bringing Christ to us by serving as our Associate Pastor. Many blessings to you as you embark on your next assignment.

We will be praying for you!

Farewell and Thank You from Fr. Matthew Pohlman

Dear St. Stephen the Martyr Parish Community,

You have been a gift to me in my early years of priesthood. I am filled with gratitude as I consider your generosity and the kindness you have shown me since my first day here two years ago. As a seminarian, I used to journal, wondering about whose lives I might enter as a priest in times of joy and sorrow. As a priest, I continue to journal, now knowing your stories and experiencing your joys and sorrows with you in a special way. Thank you for inviting me into your lives.

Christ, our "high priest of the good things to come," has shown me His goodness in this faith community in countless ways (Hebrews 9:11). Together we have celebrated joyful baptisms, beautiful weddings, many funerals, ordinary events, and the Eucharistic Sacrifice, "the source and summit of the whole Christian life" (Lumen Gentium, 11). When I look out from the presider's chair at the beginning of Sunday Mass, I see young couples I accompanied toward their wedding day, families quietly grieving a loss, students from our school and religious education program, daily Mass goers, and so many more. I have been blessed to bring all of your burdens and blessings to the altar and offer them up to God as "a sacrifice of praise" (Hebrews 13:15).

As I expressed in a homily a couple weeks ago, a priest ministers in a particular community: I not only love being a priest, but I have loved being your priest. I look forward to providence allowing our paths to cross in the future. For now, I make my own the final greeting of St. Paul to his dear friends in Ephesus: "The Lord be with your spirit. Grace be with all of you" (2 Timothy 4:22).

*Peace,
Fr. Matthew*

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Life Explained:

Question: I've heard of the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy. What are they, and what's the difference?

Answer: As God has shown us mercy, so too are we called to show mercy to those we encounter. We see mercy throughout the Gospels, but the parable in Matthew 25 forms the foundation for the first set of Works of Mercy. This parable of the last judgment shows each person being asked how well they cared for those around them, and being reminded that this care for those in need is care for God Himself. Each person is asked if they have fed the hungry, given drink to the thirsty, clothed the naked, sheltered the stranger, cared for the sick, and visited the imprisoned. These — along with burying the dead — are the Corporal Works of Mercy, as they primarily concern the physical life of a person.

The list of the Spiritual Works of Mercy developed later. These actions of love primarily concern the inner life of a person. They are instructing the ignorant, counseling the doubtful, admonishing sinners, bearing wrongs patiently, forgiving offenses, comforting the afflicted, and praying for both the living and the dead. All of these actions are concrete ways of bringing the love of God into the world. ©LPi
