THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

"Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me
and I in him."
- Jn 6:56

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Pastor's Message – From Father Dave

"I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world."

The portion of St. John's Gospel that we hear on this Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ follows the story of the multiplication of the loaves and fishes. Jesus is not just any kind of bread, but bread that comes down from heaven to give us eternal life. In this Gospel passage, Jesus asks His audience to remember that God sent manna to the Israelites when they were wandering and hungry in the desert. "But they died", Jesus says. What He gives now is bread that will give us life with God forever.

"Flesh and blood" in the Hebrew language literally means "life." Now Jesus has become flesh and blood to nourish His people and give us the gift of eternal life. The Word of God has become flesh, and we take His flesh into our own bodies when we receive Holy Communion.

Saint Augustine spoke so well of the gift of the Eucharist when he said, "If you receive well, you are what you have received. Since you are the Body of Christ and His members, it is your mystery that you receive. You hear the words 'the Body of Christ' and you answer 'Amen.' Be, therefore, members of Christ that your 'amen' may be true. Be what you see and receive what you already are."

"The sign of Christ can only be deciphered if His human love and surrender 'even unto death' is read as the manifestation of absolute love." -Hans Urs von Balthasar

*In Christ,
Father Dave*

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Life Explained:

Question: Why do we celebrate the Hearts of Jesus in the month of June?

Answer: Devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus is an ancient practice. We can see its Scriptural origins in Jesus' own references to His Heart. "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest ... for I am meek and humble of heart" (c.f. Matthew 11:28, 29).

The devotion received a surge of popularity in the late 1600s. Jesus appeared several times to a French religious sister, St. Margaret Mary Alacoque, pointing to his heart. During this time, the Jansenist heresy had risen in France, which preached limited predestination for salvation. When appearing to Margaret Mary, Jesus affirmed his love for all mankind: "Behold the Heart which has so loved men that it has spared nothing." He asked for a special feast celebrating his Sacred Heart on the Friday following the feast of Corpus Christi. Over time, June has become known as the month of Sacred Heart.
