18TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He said the blessing, broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, who in turn gave them to the crowds. They all ate and were satisfied.

OLPH

Pastor's Message – From Father Dave

Taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing, broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, who in turn gave them to the crowds. They all ate and were satisfied, and they picked up the fragments left over— twelve wicker baskets full.

Five loaves of bread and two fish would hardly be enough supper for Jesus and His Apostles, yet it becomes more than enough to feed a multitude of people! A miracle like this can only happen through divine intervention, and it reveals the special connection that He has with God the Father for those in the crowd who still had their doubts about Jesus. The miracle of the multiplication shows Jesus' care for the poor, and it anticipates the Eucharist to come.

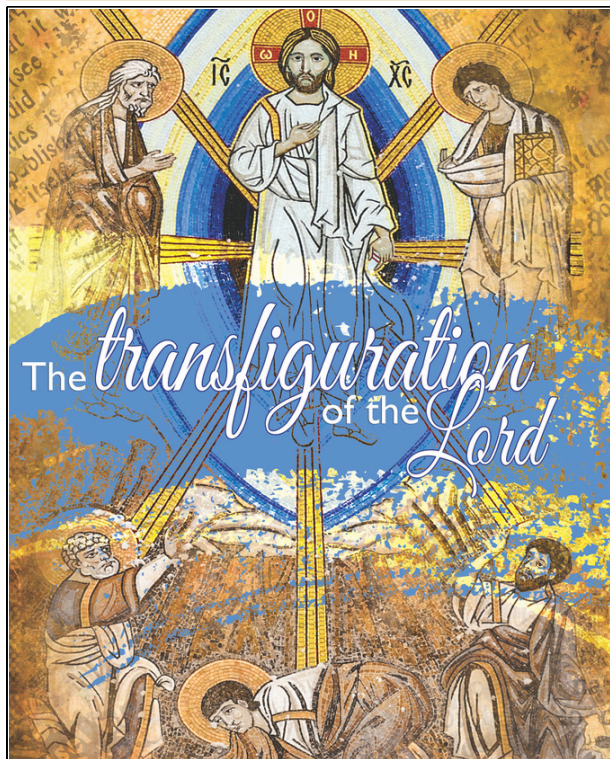

The miracle also reminds us that God will give us more than enough to live when we turn to Him in faith and ask. In these uncertain days, when many countries of the world are in turmoil, we are called once again to place our faith in God and His care for us. He will not let us go hungry, whether it is physical hunger or spiritual hunger. In turn, He will send us into the world to fill the emptiness of His people. We are fed through the celebration of the Eucharist every Sunday and then we become the visible sign of Jesus Christ in the world. Let us pray that we will all be grateful for what has been given to us and that we will be generous in sharing the "loaves and fishes" of our lives. As our hunger is satisfied, may we bring wholeness and the fullness of God's love to our brothers and sisters.

"Not only do people need food, but they need also the touch of a hand, the sound of a voice. For food lasts but a day, but love is for always."

—Saint Teresa of Calcutta

In Christ, Father Dave

*The Feast of the Transfiguration is celebrated on August 6th, when God the Father revealed the Glory of his Son on the mountaintop. His voice came from a cloud saying: "This is my Son, my Chosen; listen to him! Lord, Teach us to listen to You and to follow wherever You lead, knowing that Your glory is always with us.
Amen.*

WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained:

Question: If God is eternal and infinite, how can He have a mother? Why don't we call Mary just the mother of Jesus?

Answer: The title of "Mary, Mother of God" can be confusing. We aren't implying that Mary existed from eternity or that she is divine herself. We aren't promoting some kind of Marian superpowers. The Church has fought for this title throughout the centuries for one simple reason: Christ's identity is at stake.

As the Church grew in the early centuries, theologians wrestled with what it meant for Jesus to be both God and man. Many distortions of his identity began to emerge. One of these was propagated by a man named Nestorius. Nestorius and his followers denied that Jesus' human nature and his divine nature were inseparable. Following that logic, Mary could have only conceived Jesus' human nature. But people don't give birth to a "nature." They give birth to a whole person. For Jesus, his whole person is both human and divine. In 431 A.D. the Council of Ephesus denounced Nestorius. The bishops affirmed that Jesus is both fully human and fully divine and proclaimed Mary Theotokos. Translating the Greek to English, that means "God-bearer." Note that this isn't "God-generator" or "God-creator." Mary bore Jesus, God and man, in her womb and gave him birth. She is mother to the whole person, the whole Jesus, and therefore Mother of God. ©LPi

Weekly Prayer

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

Thus says the LORD:
All you who are thirsty,
come to the water! (Is 55:1)

Psalm:

The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs. (Ps 145)

Second Reading:

For I am convinced that neither death, nor life,
nor angels, nor principalities,
nor present things, nor future things,
nor powers, nor height, nor depth,
nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord. (Rom 8:38-39)

Gospel:

Taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven,
he said the blessing, broke the loaves,
and gave them to the disciples, who in turn gave them to the crowds. (Mt 14:19)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

When Jesus multiplied the loaves and fishes, he didn't create only what was needed — there were leftovers that could be saved and shared again. God is lavish in bestowing His grace upon us. He always gives enough to share.
