Archbishop's
Annual Appeal

The 2026 Archbishop's Annual Appeal is beginning throughout our diocese. You will receive an invitation from Archbishop McGovern to support the work of the Church through a personal commitment.

The financial and participation goals for St. Stephen the Martyr this year is $224,025.

As disciples of Jesus, we are invited to trust, to let go of fear and open our minds and hearts to God's saving work. What is holding you back from sharing your gifts?

26TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"When John came to you in the way of righteousness,
you did not believe him;
but tax collectors and prostitutes did. Yet even when you saw that, you did not later change your minds and believe him."
- Mt 21:32

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

OLPH

Pastor's Message – From Father Dave

Jesus said to them, "Amen, I say to you, tax collectors and prostitutes are entering the kingdom of God before you. When John came to you in the way of righteousness, you did not believe him; but tax collectors and prostitutes did. Yet even when you saw that, you did not later change your minds and believe him."

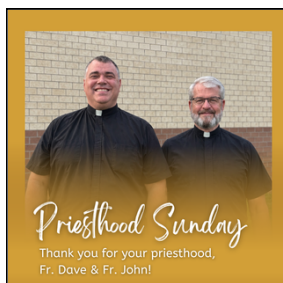

Whenever we hear the Gospel writers speak of "tax collectors and prostitutes," we understand them to be code words for "big-time sinners." These two groups of people were rejected by the religious leaders of Jesus' time, but Jesus Himself welcomed them, loved them, and forgave them. Knowing that the religious leaders were not approving of the company He was keeping, Jesus tells the parable of a vineyard owner who had 2 sons. The first son said that he would obey his father and go into the vineyard, but he didn't go. The other son first refused, but then changed his mind and went. Jesus then asks the question, "Which of the two did his father's will?" The second. Even though he refused at first, he had a change of heart.

This parable is difficult for us to hear because of the judgments we make against other people. It is out of our realm of understanding to think that God would forgive the most notorious sinners in our midst. And yet, that's how God's love and mercy works: God never gives up hope that a sinner will repent and do His will. The real issue is with those who are self-righteous, those who believe that they are better than everyone else—and whose hearts are not moved by the Gospel of Jesus Christ. The unwillingness to do the Father's will, while paying lip service to it, will take us out of the reach of God's embrace and place us in darkness.

The spirit of repentance is the foundation of receiving the gift of grace from God and of receiving the gift of eternal life one day. There will be those who are greater sinners than we who will have the opportunity for life in heaven. That may be difficult for us to fathom, but we remember that God's ways are not our ways. God will show abundant generosity to those who repent of their sinfulness, whether they are saints or notorious sinners.

"Every great person has first learned how to obey, whom to obey, and when to obey." – William Ward

WHY DO WE DO THAT?
Catholic Life Explained:

Question: Who is St. Jerome and why is he so significant that we honored him with a feast on September 30?

Answer: St. Jerome (345-420) was considered the greatest biblical scholar of his day, conversant with Latin, Greek, and Hebrew. He set about translating the books of the Bible from their original languages into Latin.

Much of Jerome's correspondence has survived and gives us a powerful glimpse into the kind of person that he was, as well as the time in which he lived. Jerome eventually became Pope Damasus' (366-384) personal secretary. In the West, Latin was overtaking Greek as the language of the common people. The pope desired a translation of the Bible that would be accurately translated from the original languages into the language and idiom of the people. Previous Latin translations existed, but they were poor in quality.

Jerome set about this task and spent the rest of his life meticulously translating. He is credited with the translation of the Bible known as the Vulgate, a Latin translation intended to address the needs of the common people. That translation became the standard and the only one used by Catholics until modern times. Catholics did not actively engage in a similar process until 1943, when Pius XII allowed Catholic scholars once again to go back to the original languages and translate an accurate and meticulous version of the Bible. We carry on that tradition to this very day. ©LPi

But if he turns from the wickedness he has committed, he does what is right and just,
he shall preserve his life. (Ez 18:27)

Psalm

Remember your mercies, O Lord. (Ps 25)

Second Reading

That at the name of Jesus
every knee should bend, of those in heaven and on earth and under the earth,
and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. (Phil 2:10-11)

Gospel

Jesus said to them, "Amen, I say to you,
