30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul,
and with all your mind."
- Mt 22:37

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

ELP

Pastor's Message – From Father Dave

"You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and first commandment. The second is like it:
You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

This sounds easy, doesn't it? But when we try to take these simple, yet profound, words off the page and try to live them, we find very quickly that loving God and neighbor totally is difficult work. The Pharisees have come before Jesus to ask a question that they hope will trip Him up. They want to find a reason to put Him to death, so they ask, "Which commandment in the Law is the greatest?" Jesus' response is one that no one can argue against. All of the teachings of Scripture and Church can be summarized in these two directives: Love God and your neighbor as totally and as completely as you can.

The only way that we can even attempt to love our neighbor is if we first have a deep, loving relationship with God. If we don't make time for God in our life, we aren't going to make time to love and care for one another. Everything we do depends upon the relationship that we build with our heavenly Father.

"Welfare is for a purpose. Christian love is for a person." -Mother Teresa of Calcutta

In Christ, Father Dave

Vote for Life this November

Catholics are called to protect human life while recognizing other issues that uphold human dignity. As we evaluate candidates and ballot issues, we should form our consciences through Church teaching and promote the common good. Scan the QR code below to view the Voter Guide and learn where candidates stand on life issues. Printed copies are also available in the Gathering Space after Masses this weekend.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained:

Question: Is Halloween a pagan holiday or a Catholic one?

Answer: The short answer: nowadays, a little bit of both. But it wasn't always that way. Halloween and All Saints' Day are closely connected. In the 800s, the Catholic Church began celebrating All Saints' Day. It was originally called All Hallows' Day or Hallowmas. The celebration began early on All Hallows' Eve. But if Halloween is really about the saints in all their victorious glory, where do we get haunted houses, costumes, and pranks?

All Saints' Day became associated with the other deceased rather quickly. November 2nd is All Souls Day, where we pray for the souls in purgatory. Throughout the European world, especially with the Celtic and Germanic peoples, the dead were honored in the autumn months. The Celtic pagan celebration of Samhain had its own folk rituals and occurred around the same time as these Catholic feast days.

Within the last few hundred years, this included dressing in disguise and going door to door, asking for food in exchange for a rhyme or poem. Some people masqueraded as "dark" spirits and pulled pranks on others. Today's celebration of Halloween tends to take on these later practices, rather than the original meaning of celebrating the saints. But remember ... this feast was Catholic first!

Weekly Prayer

Sunday's Readings

First Reading

"You shall not wrong any widow or orphan.
If ever you wrong them and they cry out to me,
I will surely hear their cry.
My wrath will flare up, and I will kill you with the sword;
then your own wives will be widows, and your children orphans." (Ex 22:21-23)

Psalms

I love you, Lord, my strength. (Ps 18)

Second Reading

For they themselves openly declare about us
what sort of reception we had among you,
and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God and to await his Son from heaven. (1 Thes 1:9-10)

Gospel

"You shall love the Lord, your God,
with all your heart,
with all your soul,
and with all your mind." (Mt 22:37)
